CLEMSON — A ROCK SOLID TRADITION IN ITS 100TH SEASON

Today's Features

5 Trevor Putnam

Clemson's starting center was the last member of the 1991 freshman class to sign on the dotted line with the Tigers. It was worth the wait from a Clemson standpoint because the senior is one of the reasons for Clemson's success on offense this year.

7 Marcus Hinton

Even though he was a quarterback in high school, Marcus Hinton has been one of Clemson's most productive receivers over the last four years and ranks in the top 20 in Clemson history in yards per reception.

8A Centennial Scrapbook

This week we take you through the 1940s, an era that featured the play of two-time All-American Joe Blalock, a perfect 1948 season, and the first decade of the head coaching career of the legendary Frank Howard.

44 Women's Track

The Lady Tiger track team features the return of ACC MVP Nikki Sims. Coach Wayne Coffman hopes she and some other prominent returnees can lead the Lady Tigers to a top 20 national finish.

53 Women's Basketball

Jim Davis and the Lady Tigers seek a ninth straight year in postseason play. They must replace all-time three-point shooter Tara Saunooke, but Davis does have some outstanding newcomers who should blend with experienced returnees who should make Clemson a factor in the ACC race.

54 Senior Spotlight

Today will be the final home game for all the seniors. Turn to page 54 to review the careers of Tigers Orlando Davis, Travis Harvey and Kelton Dunnican.

65 Dwayne Morgan

Dwayne Morgan has been an exception to the rule. Normally, a junior college transfer takes a year to become accustomed to Division I football. But, Morgan has been a starter from Day One and his blocking is one of the reasons Clemson ranks among the nation's top 10 in rushing offense.

68 Robert Jackson

Clemson's senior tackle once saved the lives of two people at the same time in a swimming pool incident. He has put forth a similar heroic effort this year, as he might be the most improved player on the Clemson offense.

80 Hall of Fame

Each year Clemson honors its outstanding athletes from the past. Turn to page 80 to review the careers of this year's Hall of Fame class.

113 Speedy Watson

No one (except his mother) calls Speedy Watson by his real first name. He got the name Speedy in high school and his 4.31 time in the 40 yard dash last year certainly gave credibility to the moniker. Turn to page 113 to hear how Speedy has contributed to the secondary, and to find out his real first name.

117 Tiger Baseball

Jack Leggett has the Clemson baseball program among the nation's elite. The Tigers advanced to the College World Series last year. But, six juniors sign pro contracts and nine of the signees turned professional. Will the 1996 Tigers rebuild, or reload?

120 The Last Word

The Clemson-Duke series has featured some wild games from one end of the world to the other. The 1983 game in Durham might have been the most unusual as both teams gained over 500 yards of total offense. Bob Bradley takes us back to a game where Duke couldn't stop the Tigers run and Clemson couldn't stop the Blue Devils pass.

TODAY'S GAME

by Tim Bourret

Final Game for Seniors

Saturday's game against Duke will be the final contest in Death Valley for 24 Tiger seniors. A victory over the Blue Devils will give the Tigers seven overall wins and six Division I wins this year, thus qualifying Clemson for a bowl bid. That would be fitting for this class in its last home game, as the group has had a lot to do with the enhancement of Clemson's football tradition.

Many of these senior players entered Clemson in 1991 and were a part of the Tigers ACC Championship team that played in the Citrus Bowl. The group also experienced a bowl victory against Kentucky in the 1993 Peach Bowl. Seven times in the last five years Clemson has upset a Top 20 team, including two road wins over top 20 teams. The class has experienced 34 victories over the five seasons with hopefully three games remaining.

There have been many highlights for the seniors, including the 1992 29-28 win at Virginia. The Tigers overcame a 28-point deficit in that contest, the greatest comeback in Clemson football history. Still, a victory over Duke today might be just as memorable because it would culminate quite a comeback for the Tigers program.

Priester Nearing 1,000 yards

Clemson tailback Raymond Priester enhanced his chances of reaching the magic 1,000-yard mark with 95 yards in 20 attempts against North Carolina last week. It was quite an accomplishment as the Tar Heels were ranked ninth in the nation in rushing defense and second in the nation in total defense entering the game.

Priester, a sophomore is just 62 yards away from becoming the seventh Clemson player and second sophomore in history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. No Tiger has done it in the 1990s and no Clemson player has reached the 1,000-yard mark since Terry Allen gained 1192 in 1988. He now has 938 yards, already the 10th highest total in Clemson history. His average of 104.2 yards per game is fifth best in Clemson history, but not far from Cliff Austin's record of 106.4 per game.

What is especially impressive about Priester is that he has not built up his total with a couple of long rushing plays. His longest run this year is just 31 yards and he has just eight rushes of at least 20 yards. He accumulates the yardage with consistent runs between the tackles in the slashing style. His most productive games have come on a sloppy track, as the Wake Forest game and Maryland contests on the road, and the Virginia game at Clemson were all on a wet field.

Priester is the first to credit the play of his offensive line. The group that features seniors Will Young, Robert Jackson, Trevor Putnam, and Dwayne Morgan, is the most improved aspect of the Clemson team. The line has allowed just 10 sacks all year, including just one in the last four games.

Fischer Active NCAA Passing Leader

While we hear a lot about Nebraska's Tommy Frazier, Florida State's Danny Kanell or anyone who is playing quarterback for Florida, it is Duke's Spence Fischer who ranks as the number-one active NCAA passer in terms of yardage. The four-year starter has passed for 8675 yards in his career, as he has connected on 748 passes in 1293 attempts with 46 touchdowns. Only former Duke quarterback Ben Bennett has more in ACC history with 9614. He has completed 57.8 percent of his passes as a Blue Devil.

So far this year Fischer has completed 60.2 percent of his passes, with 10 interceptions and 10 touchdown passes. He has thrown for 2322 yards, more than any other ACC quarterback...yes even more than Kanell. He had 35 completions against Virginia as the Blue Devils fell by 44-30 in Charlottesville. Duke jumped out to a 21-3 lead in that contest.

Defensively, Ray Farmer is the top player. An All-American last year when he led Duke to an 8-4 record and its first bowl appearance in the 1990s, Farmer is one of the top "big play" performers in the ACC. He has 11 career blocked kicks, including a blocked punt that basically gave Duke a 19-13 win over Clemson in Durham last year. He has a team best 87 tackles this year, including a season high 13 in Duke's win at Army.

Curry To Tie Clemson Record

Clemson senior Carlos Curry will tie the school record for starts in a career by a middle guard when he gets the opening call against Duke today. That is a fitting way to start his final home game in Death Valley. Despite playing the physically challenging middle guard position, Curry has not missed a game in his Clemson career, one of just two seniors who can make that claim entering today's game.

Curry will tie the Clemson middle guard record for starts held by Rob Bodine, who started 35 straight games between 1989-91. Curry's starting streak is not consecutive, but he has played in 43 straight games entering this contest.

The native of Decatur, GA has been a mainstay of a Clemson defense that ranks in the top 20 in the nation in total defense, scoring defense and pass efficiency defense. He has 18 tackles and three sacks this year. Two of the sacks came in the shutout of Maryland. For his career, Curry has nine sacks and 18 tackles for loss among his 138 tackles.

Clemson Back in Top 25

Clemson has moved back into the top 25 of both polls, Clemson's first appearance in the polls since September 5, 1994. The Tigers were ranked in the first three polls of the 1994 season, then lost to N.C. State and did not return to the polls. But, Clemson has won three in a row, all over teams with winning records, and the 6-3 slate has caught the attention of the nation's coaches and sportswriters. The Tigers are 25th in the USA Today Coach's poll and 24th in the Associated Press media poll.

A victory today combined with some losses from teams ahead of the Tigers, could send the Tigers into the top 20 of the AP poll for the first time since October 19, 1992 when the 4-2 Tigers were 18th in the nation. Clemson last finished in the final top 25 in 1993 when the 9-3 Tigers were 23rd in the final AP poll.

Defense 5th in the Nation

The Tigers have yielded just 13 total points over the last three games and have jumped all the way to fifth in the country in scoring defense. The defense coordinated by Miles Aldridge and Ellis Johnson has allowed just 16 points per game this year. Only one team has scored over 22 points against the Tigers (Florida State with 45) and the Tigers have allowed just one touchdown in the last 13 quarters.

The Tigers are now 31st in rushing defense, 12th in passing efficiency defense and 19th in total defense. Clemson's secondary has been outstanding over the last three games and that is a prime reason the Tigers have risen to the top five in the nation in preventing points.

Over the last three games opponents have completed just 43 percent of their passes for an average of 4.7 yards per attempt. Additionally, the opposition has not scored a touchdown via the pass and the Clemson defense has eight interceptions over the time, including five interceptions against North Carolina.

Twins Pick off Three Passes

Clemson twin cornerbacks Peter and Andy Ford combined for three interceptions in the Tigers win over North Carolina. It was the first time the twins each had an interception in the same game, perhaps the first time that has ever happened in a college game. It was the first career theft for Andy, while it was the eighth of Peter's career.

The Ford twins have been key contributors to the Clemson secondary that ranks second in the ACC in completion percentage defense (.481) and is second in interceptions (17). Opponents have a passing efficiency rating of just 67.2 over the last three games combined.

In addition to the Fords, Brian Dawkins, Leomont Evans, Dexter McCleon, Andre Carter and freshman Antwan Edwards have been significant reasons Clemson opponents have not thrown a scoring pass against the Tigers in the last three games. Dawkins had a 49-yard interception return for a touchdown in the win against North Carolina and he also had nine tackles. It was the first interception return for a score by a Tiger since Tim Jones returned an interception 26 yards for a score against South Carolina in 1992.

Evans ranks second on the Clemson team in tackles with 67, including 18 in the Georgia game, and he has three interceptions, all against N.C. State, to tie a Clemson single game record. McCleon ranks among the top four in the ACC in pass deflections with 11 and also has two interceptions this year. Carter has 30 tackles and an interception, while Edwards is 11th on the team in tackles with 31.

Wilson Comes off the Bench

One of the reasons for Clemson's success on defense this year has been the performance of the Tigers bench. Sophomore Mond Wilson continued that reputation last Saturday when he saw 61 plays of action as a substitute for injured starter Andy McCrorey. Wilson responded with 16 tackles, eight first hits and eight assists, in Clemson's 17-10 victory. Wilson also had two tackles for loss and a sack. The sophomore never had more than five tackles in a game previous to the North Carolina game.

TREVOR PUTNAM

By Katie Webb

Everything that is worthwhile in life is worth waiting for. This is an axiom that hits close to home to Clemson starting center Trevor Putnam, who was the last Clemson signee of the class of 1991. While most high school recruits sign in February, Putnam did not become a Tiger until June 21st, just a matter of weeks before he enrolled at Clemson.

For Clemson, and for Putnam, the wait has paid off. The Tigers have an outstanding center who has helped lead an offense that averages over 380 yards per game, a contributing factor in the Tigers hunt for a postseason bowl. Putnam is in the process of earning his undergraduate degree, which he should earn in December.

Putnam's experience at Clemson has been a successful one, both academically and athletically. If you wanted to sell a recruit on Clemson by showing him a finished product, Putnam's resume would be on display. Last year he posted a 3.5 GPA, his third semester on the Dean's List, and he was named to the ACC Academic Honor roll for the 1994-95 academic year. He is certainly an academic all-conference candidate for this year.

"It's been no easy task. I have to work hard just to keep ahead and to maintain what I have accomplished," said Putnam. "With classes, practice, traveling on the road, it is no easy task. But, I've stayed with it, especially the last couple of years, so it should pay off in December (when he walks down the graduation line)."

Putnam exemplifies Clemson University's standards for an equal balance between academics and athletics and sets a good example for the younger players. "Trevor is a hard worker and good solid player," said Brandon Streeter, who like Putnam is red-shirting his freshman season. "He seems to work hard at everything he does: in the weight room, in the classroom and on the field."

Position coach John Latina says, "Trevor is a conscientious, hard worker. He is a tremendous person and a good leader. He's improved noticeably, in the last year and a half and continues to do so. He is easy to coach and is good with the other players."

Senior offensive tackle, Robert Jackson states, "Trevor is a good guy. He doesn't party much, he's a hard worker, and has a great sense of humor."

A true nature buff, Putnam enjoys hunting, fishing, and almost any outdoor activity. One of his favorites is white water rafting. While sitting in the Carillion Garden on the Clemson campus, he admires the grounds and the natural surroundings that encompass the university. "That's one of the reasons I came here, the setting of this University. I really like the campus," said Putnam as a squirrel ran nearby.

Being raised in Western North Carolina with the Pisgah National Forest to one side, the Blue Ridge Parkway to the other, and the Great Smokies nearby, Putnam feels that nature is one of life's most beautiful treasures. "Canton's a small town, and it's hard to get out of; but I'm glad I made it. I love the place, because it's my home. But job wise, there aren't many opportunities. That's why I came to Clemson, for my degree and to play football."

Senior offensive guard, Will Young, fondly states, "Trevor is a 'good ole country boy.'"

Young and Putnam are mainstays of an offensive line that has become close on and off the field. "Trevor has helped with the changes in offense and he's familiar with the offense, he's a good leader. All and all, he's a good person. Because he's one of the three inside players on the line, we've become even closer. Plus, I know, he's got to have the biggest truck on campus."

Young and Putnam have become quite a combination in the middle of the Tiger offensive line. In fact, they won ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week honors for consecutive games, Putnam for the Tigers win at Maryland and Young for the victory at Georgia Tech. It was the first time Clemson had had a player win Offensive Lineman of the Week honors since 1993.

Putnam has been a starter in each of the last 22 Clemson games and is on his way to his second straight season of at least 600 plays. He had 38 knockdown blocks in 1994, his first year as a starter, and should exceed that total this year. "Trevor might be our most improved offensive lineman from 1994 to 1995," said Head Coach Tommy West. "He has really been an important factor in our improvement on the line. When you see Emory Smith rushing for all those yards through the middle of the line, it is usually Trevor who is providing the key block."

Hard work in the weightroom has had a lot to do with his improvement on the football field. As a freshman, Putnam weighed in at 220 pounds. He has built himself up to a solid 260 pounds. "I have to eat a lot and work out in the weightroom to keep my weight up there. Sometimes I take four to five helpings at meals."

Putnam is the Tiger's strongest center in the past 10 years. He has a power ratio of 6.58. In the strength and training department, he ranks third on the offensive line in leg sled pounds with 1,030. During the winter conditioning of '95, he broke his own record, which was 1,020.

Putnam has been playing football for 17 years. "My older brother, Tony, encouraged me to play," recalled Putnam. "I started out playing pee wee, then termites, then mites, midgets, then on to junior varsity and varsity."

He continued his climb through high school, but was not highly recruited, thus the wait until June before he got a scholarship. "My parents have been so supportive, I have been lucky. They allow me to make my own choices and decisions. I didn't like it here at first, something a lot of freshmen go through. Then I didn't play much my first three years, but they were always behind me."

A sign of maturity if patience. Trevor Putnam had the patience that something would work out for him as a senior in high school, and opportunities have certainly worked out for him in his senior year of college. It has been worth waiting for.

Putnam has been on the Dean's List three of the last four semesters and is one of the reasons Clemson is averaging almost 400 yards a game.

MARCUS HINTON

By Brian Hennessy

Marcus Hinton, the hospital administrator. No, how about Marcus Hinton, the minister. Or, Marcus Hinton, the wide receiver. Yes!!! That's the Marcus Hinton we all know and have watched for the past four years on Saturdays in Death Valley.

Marcus Hinton, a 6-foot, 174-pound senior wide receiver from Powder Springs, GA, has come a long way from home. The Anchorage, AK born Hinton came to Clemson as a first-team all-state running back, the number-two ranked passing and running quarterback prospect, and the 10th best all-around athlete in the nation according to many recruiting experts.

Although his on the field achievements were outstanding enough to be noticed by many, Hinton attributes off the field reasons for attending Clemson. "I had some great visits with Coach (Ken) Hatfield and my recruiting coach, Coach (Roger) Hinshaw. I really enjoyed talking to those coaches, not only about football, but about the Lord Jesus Christ. Those discussions were unlike any discussions I had had while being recruited."

Coming from a family of four, Hinton was able to receive plenty of attention from his parents, considering that his brother is much older than he is. "My father helped me on the field with the athletic aspects. My mother helped me deal with the personal aspects such as girlfriends and class troubles." Hinton's parents were also supportive in his career choices. "Whatever I wanted to do, they were always 100 percent behind me and pushed me to do the best that I could. I thank God that I have parents like that."

While Hinton is devout in his beliefs off the field, on the field he has made a believer out of many. In his freshman year (1992), Hinton caught only two passes. One of them, though, was a spectacular 51-yard touchdown catch from fellow true freshman Patrick Sapp against the Tar Heels in Death Valley.

"Pat threw it to my outside shoulder and the defensive back bumped up against me. That's why people thought that I pushed off. I followed the ball and caught it as the guy fell down beside me." That catch proved pivotal as it paved the way in the Tiger's thrashing of the Tar Heels 40-7, the largest margin of victory in Clemson history over a ranked opponent.

In Hinton's sophomore year (1993), he started to post some impressive numbers as he amassed 241 yards on 14 receptions. Those figures placed him second and third, respectively, on the team, despite playing behind former great Terry Smith and on a one wideout offense for the last five games. One catch, a diving 43-yard touchdown reception against North Carolina State, was instrumental in the Tiger's 20-14 victory over the Wolfpack.

Hinton is among Clemson's career leaders in yards per reception.

Hinton also was on the field when Patrick Sapp found Terry Smith in the endzone for a thrilling one-point victory over Kentucky in the Peach Bowl. Although he did not catch the memorable pass, he was most likely the intended receiver as he along with Smith were crossing the endzone in the same area. Marcus, along with thousands of other Tiger fans, did not mind anyway.

Hinton continued his marked improvement through his junior year (1994), when he posted 18 receptions for 280 yards. Against the Wolfpack, Hinton compiled a career-high six catches for 62 yards. But his shining moment came weeks later against North Carolina. It occurred when the Tigers once again upended North Carolina, this time in Chapel Hill, as he doomed the high-powered Tar Heels by pulling in a 42-yard, back-peddling reception that set the tempo for Clemson's upset of number-12 ranked Tar Heels in Kenan Stadium. The Tar Heels were surely glad to see Hinton for the last time last Saturday, whether it be in orange-filled Death Valley, or Orange County, North Carolina.

Going into his senior year, Hinton has already placed himself amongst some of the Tiger greats. He was ninth in Clemson history in yards per reception with a 17-yard per catch mark. His 34 receptions and 578 receiving yards ranked first on the team coming into the year. Hinton has been a constant fixture in the Tiger lineup as he has played in all but two games in his career. He also had the highest reception average among all Clemson receivers who have played in the 90s, even better the former teammate Terry Smith.

As one of the last receivers to play with former Tiger great Terry Smith, Hinton contributes much of his success to the experiences he had with Smith. "Terry taught me how to approach practice and the games by his hard work. I really enjoyed the talks that Terry and I had off the field as friends."

Now that Hinton is a senior, he has realized that it is his turn to fill the shoes of a leader. Although Hinton's experience as a receiver is applicable, he prefers to lead in other areas, mostly off the field. "I try to help my teammates with personal needs and problems they might be having. On the football field I tend to lead in a quieter role."

Since arriving at Clemson in 1992, Hinton's development on the field has been apparent. But off the field, Marcus has changed in other and more meaningful ways. "When I first came to Clemson, it was hard being apart from my parents and school of Christian friends who have helped me with personal problems. I went away from the Lord at first, then I had to realize how I arrived here, which was through Jesus Christ. I had to start over and remember that I owe everything to the Lord."

Once the curtain goes down on Hinton's career as a football player at Clemson, he will move on in pursuit of an NFL career. But he also realizes the odds that he will not be able to continue his athletic career. "My first goal is to try to earn a spot on an NFL team. But I also want to pursue a career in hospital management and administration. Ultimately, I am going to work wherever the Lord leads me. I would also like to pursue a career in ministry, where I have already received some opportunities and offers."

As time goes by, Hinton will continue to preach his messages of faith and will help others in need. Whether it be a home field, a hospital, or a house of God, he will surely never forget where he came from. And though he may not end up as a star on the field, somewhere, Marcus will end up giving back what he has received.

CENTENNIAL SCRAPBOOK

Frank Howard

The man seconded his own nomination for Head Coach. Need we say more! The legendary Frank Howard took over as Clemson head coach in 1940 and held the position for 30 years. He guided Clemson to six Top 20 seasons, eight conference championships, 100 conference victories, 165 overall wins and eight bowl games. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989. With all those accomplishments, he might be best known for his wit and charm with the media, something he still does today.

1995 CLEMSON FOOTBALL

What a Start

It didn't take long for Howard to capture the hearts of the Clemson faithful. On his first offensive play as head coach, George Floyd (below) ran 18 yards for a touchdown. Clemson won its first five games that year and was ranked in the top 10 in the country by midseason. A big victory came at Riggs Field over Wake Forest (at left). Clemson put a 39-0 hurting on a good Wake Forest team. The Tigers ended the season as Southern Conference Champions, the school's first conference title ever.

Tiger Timeline

January 10, 1940—Jess Neely resigned as athletic director and football coach to accept the head football coaching job at Rice University. Neely had inherited a $47,000 deficit when he arrived in 1931 and earned Clemson $100,000 during his tenure and left Clemson with $57,000 in the treasury. His overall record at Clemson was 43-35-7. He would be inducted into the college football Hall of Fame in 1971.

January 11, 1940—Frank Howard was named head football coach. At the Athletic Council meeting that day, Howard was nominated for the position by Professor Sam Rhodes, a council member. When a call for a second was asked, Howard, standing in the back of the room, said: "I second the nomination." It is perhaps the only recorded time in history a coach has seconded his own nomination for head coach.

July 25, 1940—Banks McFadden accepted a bid to play in the College All-Star game against the Green Bay Packers on August 29. He scored one of the two touchdowns for the College All-Stars.

September 1, 1940—Banks McFadden signed a one-year contract to play with the Brooklyn Dodgers professional football team. He led the NFL in yards per carry in that 1940 season, but did not like the bright lights of New York and returned to Clemson after that one season.

September 2, 1940—Frank Howard opened his first fall practice.

September 21, 1940—In Frank Howard's first game as head coach, Clemson scored on the first offensive play as George Floyd reversed around left end and raced 18 yards untouched for a Clemson touchdown. The Tigers went on to a 38-0 win over Presbyterian.

October 12, 1940—Clemson shutout Wake Forest 39-0 in Clemson's second game of the season at Riggs Field. It was Clemson's third shutout in the first four games of the Howard era. It was the last home game of the season for the Tigers, who would go on to win the Southern Conference title even though seven of the nine games were on the road.

October 24, 1940—Frank Howard won his

Charlie Timmons

Howard did inherit a couple of outstanding players that first year, however, they were players he had recruited as an assistant coach. Charlie Timmons was an all-conference back who led the Tigers in rushing in 1939 and 1941. His senior year he put up big numbers with 635 yards rushing, a record at the time, and 77 points scored on nine touchdowns and 23 extra points. The scoring total was the most by a Clemson football player over the first 52 years of the sport at Clemson.

Joe Blalock

While Banks McFadden got a lot of attention in 1939, Blalock was Clemson's first two-time All-American, still the only two-time All-America receiver in Clemson history. He averaged 20.34 yards per catch in an era when passing was taboo, and that is still the best average in Clemson history. This charter member of the Clemson Hall of Fame is still in the top five in Clemson history in career touchdown receptions. He was also known to throw a pass or two on end around plays.

Tiger Timeline

first game as head coach in the rivalry with South Carolina. The Tigers were victorious 21-13 thanks to five interceptions by the Clemson defense. Howard coached in 30 Clemson-South Carolina games. Incredible as it may seem, both Clemson and South Carolina scored exactly 411 total points in those 30 games.

October 28, 1940—It didn't take Howard long to get the Tigers into the nation's top 10. With the 5-0 start the Tigers earned 136 poll points and ranked number-10 in the nation, Clemson's first top 10 ranking in the AP poll. Two writers actually ranked Clemson number-one.

November 23, 1940—Clemson won the Southern Conference football title with a 13-7 victory over Furman. Ed Manness led the way for the Tigers with 136 yards rushing in 18 attempts. It was the first of eight conference championships for the Tigers under Frank Howard.

October 6, 1941—Work began on Memorial Stadium. The chore of cleaning, digging and leveling the site as well as cutting large trees and clearing underbrush was supervised by Frank Howard. A pipe was also installed for drainage under the field. Coach Neely had told Howard before he left not to build a big stadium. "All you will ever need is about 10,000 seats," said Neely. Howard went against his advice and thanks to his foresight Clemson has one of the great stadiums in college football.

October 11, 1941—Clemson defeated Boston College at Fenway Park, 26-13.

Joe Blalock scored two touchdowns as Clemson overcame a 6-0 deficit after the first period. BC outgained Clemson 363-281, but Clemson came away with the victory.

October 23, 1941—Booty Payne became the first Clemson player to pass for over 200 yards in an 18-14 loss to South Carolina. He completed 9-16 passes for 202 yards in the contest. It was one of just three 200-yard passing games by a Tiger in the decade of the 1940s.

November 15, 1941—Clemson defeated Wake Forest, 29-0, in the last game at Riggs Field.

November 22, 1941—The Tigers put on the greatest rushing defense exhibition in

Death Valley

September 19, 1942 was opening Day at Clemson Memorial Stadium. The facility had been in the works nearly a year and it was a proud Frank Howard who welcomed Presbyterian College and Tiger Fans that day. Butch Butler (at right) was the star for Clemson, gaining 192 yards rushing in the 32-13 victory.

September 19 is a great day in Clemson history. In addition to it being the anniversary day for Death Valley, Clemson has an 8-0-0 record on this date in history, the only date that has a perfect slate. Among the wins on the date is the 13-3 victory over fourth-ranked Georgia in 1981, the highest ranked win in the history of Clemson football.

Clemson history, holding Furman to -21 yards rushing in a 34-6 victory in Greenville. Charlie Timmons scored three touchdowns and added four extra points in his final game as a Tiger. The 22 points scored rank sixth best in Clemson history for a single game by an individual. But, Timmons was not the leading rusher in the game as teammate Sid Tinsley picked up 127 yards on just seven attempts.

December 22, 1941—Two-time All-American Joe Blalock was chosen in the fifth-round of the NFL draft by the Detroit Lions. Teammate and classmate Charlie Timmons was taken in the 17th round by the Washington Redskins.

September 19, 1942—Clemson Memorial Stadium opened, and Clemson ran down the hill for the first time. Butch Butler gained 192 yards, as the Tigers opened the new stadium in front of 5,500 with a 32-13 win over Presbyterian. It was the most yards rushing by a Tiger in the decade of the 1940s. High school students were admitted for 25 cents, while servicemen were allowed in for 50 cents. "The game kicked off at 2:00 PM and we finished hanging the gate signs at 1:00 PM," recalls Coach Howard.

October 22, 1942—Clemson defeated South Carolina, 18-6. Autographed balls were auctioned off at the game. For a minimum of $1,000 a fan could bid on one of the balls. The fan's money would then be used to buy war bonds.

September 25, 1943—World War II took virtually all of Clemson's veteran players and the Tigers started nine first-year freshmen at the 11 positions in a 13-12 loss to Presbyterian. Clemson had just a 2-6 record this season with no one older than a sophomore playing in a game as the armed services took Clemson's entire junior and senior classes.

October 19, 1944—First rain at a Clemson-USC game since 1896. Despite the conditions, Sid Tinsley rushed for 146 yards in 22 carries to lead the Tigers to a 20-13 victory.

September 22, 1945—Fourteen Clemson backs netted 516 yards in a 76-0 win over Presbyterian. Freshman Bobby Gage led the Tigers with 144 yards, including 88 on a

DR. DENO CURRIS

The Clemson family has a new leader. President Constantine "Deno" Curris became the school's 13th president on May 22, 1995.

"More than any other university with which I have been familiar, there is a deep affection for this university and for its heritage," says Dr. Curris.

"That affection was an important quality that led me into the process when I was asked to be a candidate.

"I have become a believer in 'learning by osmosis,' gaining a sense of place by becoming a part.

"I am most eager to absorb the Clemson atmosphere by strolling the grounds, walking through offices, visiting classrooms."

One of Dr. Curris' hobbies is gardening, growing traditional vegetables, and he has spent his career helping universities grow and prosper as well.

Before arriving at the Clemson University campus, he was president of the University of Northern Iowa for 11 years. During his tenure, Northern Iowa was the only university in Iowa to experience enrollment growth. And, with one exception, the school's state appropriation also increased every year. The U.S. News and World Report cited UNI in 1993 as one of the best educational values among public universities. Its campus has also been ranked as the safest in the nation.

Curris assumed the Presidency of Northern Iowa in August, 1983. He became only the seventh chief executive in the school's history. At Northern Iowa, he led the school in raising admission standards and implementing a more rigorous comprehensive general education program. He expanded Northern Iowa's reputation as an institution for teacher education, gaining national recognition for programs in business, fine arts, humanities, natural sciences, and social and behavioral sciences.

He oversaw the development of international exchange programs and cutting-edge technological efforts such as centers for waste reduction, plastics technology, small business development, applied research in metal casting, and recycling and reuse technology transfer. Curris was also the driving force behind a $25 million private fund raising drive to build a performing arts center and fund endowed chairs and professorships.

Curris also directed the completion of extensive campus improvements and building renovations.

Dr. Curris' philosophy, supported by hard work, accounts for much of his success, the belief in constant improvement-gradual sometimes, but consistent.

"The real work of a university is building quality in incremental steps," he said. "Building the quality of the experience for students, both in education and career opportunities."

Prior to assuming the Northern Iowa presidency, Curris served 10 years as president of Murray State in Kentucky. The university's 130,000 square-foot student center is named the Curris Center in his honor.

Curris received a bachelor's degree, magna cum laude in political science from Kentucky in 1962; a master's degree in political science and public administration from Illinois in 1965, and his doctorate in higher education from Curris came to Clemson in May after a successful decade at Northern Iowa.

Tommy West, was named head coach of the Clemson Tigers on November 29, 1993. Less than a month later he already had a bowl victory on his ledger, a 14-13 triumph in the Peach Bowl, Clemson's sixth bowl victory in the last eight years.

In his first full season, West guided the Tigers to a 5-6 record, and it was a season that showed week-by-week improvement. The '94 club, which featured the youngest Clemson offensive unit in 50 years, finished with a number-one ranking in turnover margin, a landmark ranking in Clemson football history. The Tigers were ranked as high as 21st in the USA Today poll, and finished the season with three wins in its last four outings, including a decisive conquest of #12 North Carolina in Chapel Hill.

West's defense ranked 14th in the nation against the run and 17th in scoring defense. The aggressive unit forced 29 turnovers and was one of the most reliable in the nation inside the redzone.

West also recruited one of the most impressive and productive freshman classes in Clemson history. Eighteen freshmen lettered in 1994, most for a Clemson rookie class since the 1940s. At times, the Tigers started seven freshmen on offense, including five first-year freshmen at the "skill positions." Last winter, he and his staff recruited a top 20 class according to most recruiting services.

West was a mainstay of a Clemson coaching staff that led the Tigers to a 69-20-4 record and six Associated Press Top 20 finishes between 1982-89.

During West's first tour of duty with the Tigers as an outside linebacker coach, Clemson played in five bowl games (winning four) and claimed four ACC Championships, including three in a row from 1986-88.

Clemson had a 44-10-1 record against ACC competition during his era on the Tiger staff, an 81 percent winning mark. Additionally, five of those Clemson teams ranked in the top 15 in the nation in rushing defense and scoring defense, and three ranked in the top 12 in the nation in total defense.

Clemson's 1989 defense ranked fifth in the nation in total defense, rushing defense and scoring defense and West's outside linebackers had a lot to do with that success. His top four outside linebackers that year all played in the NFL in 1994.

Levon Kirkland (Pittsburgh Steelers)

Wayne Simmons (Green Bay Packers) and John Johnson (Cincinnati Bengals) were starters in 1994 in the NFL, and Ashley Sheppard (Minnesota Vikings) was a top reserve. Simmons was a first-round draft pick, Kirkland and Johnson second-round selections and Sheppard was a fourth-round choice. In addition to the four players listed above, Andy Headen (New York Giants) and Terence Mack (St. Louis Cardinals) are former Tigers West helped guide to an NFL career.

West began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Tennessee (his alma mater) in 1977. He coached one year of high school football at White County High in Sparta, TN in 1978, then became an assistant at Mississippi in 1979. For the

The West family: Tommy, wife Lindsay and son Turner.

1980 and 1981 seasons he served as an assistant coach at Appalachian State.

After his career at Clemson (1982-89), West became the running backs coach at Tennessee. During that 1990 season Tennessee won the Southeastern Conference and captured the Sugar Bowl winning over Virginia. The Volunteers scored a school record 442 points that year and averaged over 410 yards a game in total offense, 205.7 rushing and 205.4 passing. He served as Co-Defensive Coordinator at South Carolina in 1991 and 1992.

In 1993 West took over a UT-Chattanooga team that had won just two games in 1992. He doubled that total in 1993 and guided the Mocs to one of the landmark wins in school history, a 33-31 win over #1 ranked Marshall. He concluded the regular season with a 45-42 victory over Furman. Ironically, his first regular season game as Clemson coach was a victory over Furman.

With his debut in the Peach Bowl, West became the sixth coach in NCAA history to make his debut with a program in a bowl game. However, he was just the second coach in history to make his debut in a bowl game without previously coaching his new team as an assistant coach earlier in the season.

West earned three letters in his four-year career at Tennessee (1972-75). The Vols played in three bowl games and were ranked in a final Top 20 in three seasons.

He was the co-captain of Tennessee's 1975 football team and played in the Blue-Gray All-Star game that same year.

He began his college career as a running back, but saw most of his playing time as a tight end. He caught 37 passes for 575 yards in his career with the Vols, including 16 passes for 233 yards as a senior. As a junior he caught an 81-yd. pass from Condredge Holloway, still the longest non-scoring play in Tennessee history. He earned a bachelor's degree from Tennessee in 1976 and was drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers that same year.

West played two years (1974-75) of baseball at Tennessee and had a career batting average of .305. He hit .367 in 1975 and was named All-SEC Eastern Division. Rick Honeycutt, now with the Oakland A's, was West's teammate on that 1975 Tennessee team that finished 32-16.

West was a multi-sport standout in high school. He was an outfielder in baseball, a guard in basketball and a running back in football. In 1972 he was named a High School All-American in football and was a fifth-round draft choice in baseball by the Chicago Cubs. Willie Randolph, who went on to an All-Star career with the New York Yankees, was one of 77 future Major League players drafted after West in the regular phase of the June 1972 draft. He played his prep football at Gainesville High in Gainesville, GA for Coach Bobby Gruhn. He was an all-state back as a junior and was also named to the All-Southern team.

Born Thomas Cleveland West on July 31, 1954, he is married to the former Lindsay Watkins of Forest City, NC. The couple has one son, Turner, 7.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Les Herrin

Les Herrin

Assistant Head Coach/Tackles and Tight Ends

The Clemson football program has seen a lot of success during Les Herrin's tenure as an assistant coach. In 1981, Herrin arrived at Clemson as a linebacker coach, and the Tigers won the National Championship that season. In his first tour of duty with the Tigers (1981-84) Clemson had a 37-6-2 record.

After a brief stint away from Clemson at East Carolina (1985-87) and North Carolina (1988), Herrin returned to the Tiger program in 1989 as defensive line coach. In 1989 Clemson ranked fifth in the nation in scoring, rushing, and total defense. The team followed that performance with a number-one ranking in total defense in 1990, as well as second in scoring and rushing defense.

Herrin has coached several players who have had successful NFL careers. He coached 1981 ACC MVP Jeff Davis, who went on to be captain of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and enters the Clemson Ring of Honor this year.

He also tutored 1989 All-Pro Johnny Remy (New England Patriots), who was a linebacker under Herrin's watchful eye in 1981 and 1982. Chester McGlockton, a Pro Bowl defensive lineman with the Los Angeles Raiders last year, and Pittsburgh Steelers 1994 rookie Brentson Buckner, also benefitted from Herrin's teaching.

Co-Defensive Coordinator/ Outside Linebackers

Now in his second stint at Clemson, Miles Aldridge has been affiliated with five Clemson defenses that have ranked in the top 20 in the nation in scoring and rushing defense. He first came to Clemson in 1985 as an inside linebacker coach. From 1986 thru 1989 the Tigers were ranked in the top 20 in all defensive categories, including a number-five rating in 1989. His second tour of duty at Clemson began last year and the Tigers ranked 17th in the nation in scoring defense and 14th in rushing defense.

Clemson won three consecutive ACC titles during Aldridge's first stay at Clemson, 1986-87-88 and was ranked in the final AP top 20 in 1986-87-88-89. In his years at Clemson the Tigers have won five bowl games, including victories over Penn State and Oklahoma in consecutive Citrus Bowl games in the late 1980s.

Aldridge has coached several players who have gone on to have successful pro careers. Three linebackers have gone on to the NFL, Andre Townsend (Mississippi), Freddie Joe Dunn (Mississippi), and Ed McDaniel. McDaniel is currently a starter for the Minnesota Vikings.

The 1971 graduate of Gardner-Webb will coach the outside linebackers this year and serve as co-defensive coordinator.

The Miles Aldridge File

At Clemson: In his second full season involved in the coordination of the Clemson defense, his first as outside linebacker coach and his seventh full season as a Clemson assistant.

Previous Coaching Experience: High School - Chase High School (1971); defensive backs at Newberry High School (1972); College - Graduate assistant at East Tennessee State (1973); defensive line coach at East Tennessee State (1974-77); assistant coach at Wichita State (1978); assistant coach at Tulsa (1979); assistant coach at Mississippi (1980-82); assistant coach at Duke (1983-84); inside linebacker coach at Clemson (1985-89); outside linebacker coach at North Carolina State (1990); defensive coordinator and inside linebacker coach at South Carolina (1991-93); defensive coordinator at Clemson (Dec. 1993-94); co-defensive coordinator and outside linebacker coach at Clemson (1995).

Ellis Johnson

Ellis Johnson

Co-Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Line

Ellis Johnson is in his first season as a co-defensive coordinator, his first season as defensive line coach, but his second year on the Clemson staff. As outside linebacker coach last year he was a significant reason Clemson ranked in the top 20 in the nation in scoring defense and held three ACC teams, including Florida State, to their season low in terms of scoring.

Johnson is in just his second year at Clemson, but is no stranger to the area. He attended The Citadel, but he grew up a Clemson fan. He has coached in the state at The Citadel as a graduate assistant, at Gaffney High as an assistant coach and at Spartanburg High as an assistant coach and head coach. His most successful stint in coaching so far took place in Alabama. In 1992 Johnson served as an assistant coach at Alabama. The Crimson Tide experienced a perfect season and defeated Miami (FL) in the Sugar Bowl to win the National Championship. He is one of two Tiger assistant coaches on this year's staff with a National Championship ring. Les Herrin, a member of Clemson's 1981 staff, is the other.

Johnson was a part of four outstanding defenses at Alabama. During his tenure (1990-93), Alabama ranked in the top five in the nation in total defense and pass defense three times. The 1992 Alabama defense led the nation in total defense and rushing defense and ranked second nationally in passing defense and scoring defense.

The Ellis Johnson File

At Clemson: In his first season as co-coordinator and defensive line coach, his second season overall as a Clemson assistant.

Previous Coaching Experience: High School - Assistant coach at Gaffney High School (1976-78); assistant coach at Spartanburg High School (1979); head coach at Spartanburg High School (1980-81); College - Defensive end coach at The Citadel (1975); linebacker coach at The Citadel (1982); head coach at Gardner Webb (1983); defensive coordinator and inside linebacker coach at Appalachian State (1984); outside linebacker coach and recruiting coordinator at East Carolina (1985-87); defensive coordinator at Southern Mississippi (1988-89); outside linebacker coach at Alabama (1990-93); outside linebacker coach at Clemson (Dec. 1993-94); co-coordinator of Clemson defense and defensive line coach (1995).

Education: Earned a degree in Secondary Education from The Citadel (1975).

College Playing Experience: Three-year letterman at The Citadel.

Personal Data: Born December 23, 1951...married to the former Tonya Taylor in August 1994.

Clyde Christensen

Clyde Christensen
Co-Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

An All-American quarterback in junior college, Clyde Christensen came to Clemson after two years at Maryland. He knows the ACC well as he also played for the University of North Carolina in 1977 and 1978.

At Maryland he coached quarterbacks John Kaleo and Scott Milanovich. Kaleo ranked second in the nation in total offense as a senior, while Milanovich ranked fourth nationally in that category in 1993. Last year the Clemson team ranked first in the nation in turnover margin and committed just 12 turnovers all season.

Christensen's offense at Maryland was explosive, as the Terps ranked fourth in the country in 1992 with an average of 466 yards per game, and 16th in 1993 when they averaged 440 yards per game. The Terps also ranked second in the country in passing offense in 1992 and third in passing offense in 1993.

While Christensen is in just his second year as a coach at Clemson, he has known Clemson head coach Tommy West for over 15 years. The two were graduate assistant coaches together at Mississippi in 1979. He is only 37-years-old, but already has college experience at Mississippi, East Tennessee State, Temple, East Carolina, Holy Cross, South Carolina and Maryland.

Christensen was a part of two successful teams at North Carolina as the Tar Heels played in the 1977 Liberty Bowl and the 1978 Peach Bowl during his career.

The Clyde Christensen File

At Clemson: In his second season as co-offensive coordinator and quarterback coach.

Previous Coaching Experience: College - Graduate assistant at Mississippi (1979); offensive coordinator at East Tennessee State (1980-82); quarterback and wide receiver coach at Temple (1983-85); offensive and recruiting coordinator at East Carolina (1986-88); receivers and tight ends coach at Holy Cross (1990); running backs coach at South Carolina (1991); quarterback coach at Maryland (1992-93); co-offensive coordinator at Clemson (Dec. 1993-present).

Education: B.S. in Industrial Relations from the University of North Carolina (1979).

College Playing Experience: All-America quarterback for Fresno City Junior College; played for the University of North Carolina in 1977 and 1978.

Personal Data: Born January 28, 1958 in Corvina, CA...he and his wife Debbie have three children, Ruth (4), Rebecca (9), and Rachel (11).

Rick Stockstill

Rick Stockstill
Co-Offensive Coordinator/Wide Receivers

Rick Stockstill has been around successful programs and record setting offenses his entire coaching career. In his first year as quarterback coach at Clemson (1989), the Tigers set a school record for completion percentage (60%). The Tigers led the Atlantic Coast Conference in total offense for the 1991 season, and Clemson gained the second most yards in school history in the process.

Stockstill also tutored productive offenses at Central Florida and Bethune-Cookman in his early years as a football coach. As a player, he was the starting quarterback for Florida State. He guided the Seminoles to a pair of Orange Bowl appearances, a pair of top 10 rankings, and was the team captain in 1981.

It is no surprise that Stockstill has moved up the coaching ladder so swiftly because he is the product of an athletic family. His father has been head coach at Fernandina Beach High School in Florida for many years. His brother, Jeff, was a starting wide receiver for the Tigers in 1982, a reserve on the National Championship team of 1981.

Stockstill is in his seventh year with the Clemson program and the Tigers have been to bowl games in four of the six previous seasons. He joins Les Herrin and Whitey Jordan as the only assistant coaches in Clemson history to serve under three different head coaches.

The Rick Stockstill File

At Clemson: In his second season as co-offensive coordinator and is in his seventh season with the Tigers.

Previous Coaching Experience: College - Offensive coordinator and quarterback coach at Bethune-Cookman College (1983-84); assistant head coach and wide receiver coach at the University of Central Florida (1985-88); quarterback coach at Clemson (1989-1993); passing game coordinator at Clemson (1992-93); co-offensive coordinator and wide receiver coach (Dec. 1993-present).

Education: Fernandina Beach High School in Fernandina Beach, FL (1977); B.S. degree in Physical Education from Florida State (1982).

College Playing Experience: Earned three letters in football from Florida State. Captain of 1981 Florida State team.

Personal Data: Born December 23, 1959...he and his wife Sarah were married on July 7, 1990, and had their first child, Brent Forrest, in August, 1994.

Richard Bisaccia

Richard Bisaccia
Running Backs/Special Teams/Recruiting Coordinator

Richard Bisaccia is a stickler for detail and one of the details he works on in practice with his players every day is holding on to the football. He taught this aspect better than any assistant coach in the country last year because the Tigers lost just two fumbles, fewest in the nation and an all-time Clemson record.

Bisaccia, a Yonkers, NY native, learned how to hold onto the football as a four-year starter and team captain at Yankton College. He was a free agent with the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL after his college career.

While the 1983 Spring season saw the end of his playing career, the 1983 fall was the beginning of his coaching career. He was named the offensive coordinator at Wayne State in Nebraska his first year out of college and he has been in college coaching ever since.

Unlike many Division I full-time assistant coaches, Bisaccia has not made a lot of moves. He spent five seasons at Wayne State, then six seasons at South Carolina. He has experience coaching on defense and offense, but will concentrate on the running backs position at Clemson.

Bisaccia probably wears more hats than any other Clemson coach. In addition to his time with the running backs, he is also the special teams coach and the recruiting coordinator.

In addition to Bisaccia's changes on the gridiron the last year, he had a family addition. In August of 1994 his wife Jeanne gave birth to their first son, Richard Oakley, and fourth child.

The Richard Bisaccia File

At Clemson: In his second season as the Tigers' running backs coach and special teams coach.

Previous Coaching Experience: College - Offensive coordinator at Wayne State (NE) (1983-87); graduate assistant for wide receivers at South Carolina (1988); volunteer assistant for defensive ends at South Carolina (1989-90); tight ends coach at South Carolina (1991); running backs and special teams coach at South Carolina (1992-93); running backs and special teams coach at Clemson (Dec. 1993-present).

Education: New Fairfield High School in New Fairfield, CT; Earned a degree in health and physical education from Yankton College (1983).

College Playing Experience: Four-year starter and team captain at Yankton College (1980-83).

Personal Data: Born June 3, 1960...he and his wife Jeanne have four children: daughters, Michele (11), Elizabeth (6), and Madeline (2) and son Richard Oakley (1).

Charlie Harbison

Charlie Harbison Defensive Backs

First-year Clemson coach Charlie Harbison has more experience at the professional level than any other current Tiger mentor. Harbison was a starter at strong safety with the New Orleans and Boston Breakers of the USFL in 1983-84 and also signed a free agent contract with the Buffalo Bills in 1982, 1985 and 1986.

Harbison also coached on the pro level with the Raleigh-Durham Skyhawks of the World League of American Football, with the Charlotte Barons of the MLFS and with the Charlotte Rage of the Arena Football League. He has coached wide receivers, linebackers and defensive backs in his career, but has by far his most experience as a secondary coach.

He will be Clemson's defensive backs coach in 1995, his second consecutive year as a Division I secondary coach.

In 1994 he coached the secondary at UTEP. This season he will have the opportunity to enhance the careers of a veteran secondary led by preseason All-American Brian Dawkins.

In addition to his Division I experience, Harbison also has had significant success at the NAIA level. His Gardner Webb team of 1992 had a 12-2 record and played in the NAIA Championship game.

The Charlie Harbison File

At Clemson: In his first year as secondary coach.

Education: Received bachelors degree in business administration from Gardner-Webb College.

Playing Experience: Professional—Boston Breakers (1983), New Orleans Breakers (1984), Buffalo Bills (preseason 1982, 1985-86). College: 3-year letter winner at Gardner-Webb 1979-81.

Personal Data: Born October 27, 1959. He and his wife, Dana, have two sons, Charlie and Stedman.

Reggie Herring

Reggie Herring Inside Linebackers

Reggie Herring is another example of an outstanding former player who has gone on to become an outstanding coach. A teammate of Rick Stockstill at Florida State, Herring left his own mark with the Seminole program as a player.

Herring was captain of the 1980 Orange Bowl team and earned AP All-America honors in 1980. The Seminoles played in the Orange Bowl and ranked in the top 10 in the nation his junior and senior seasons, and he was recently inducted into the Florida State Hall of Fame. He was a three-year starter at Florida State and the Seminoles played in three bowls during his four year career. Florida State also had three double-figure victory seasons during his career.

Like many of Clemson's assistant coaches in 1995, Herring has a diverse experience. He has been a part of successful programs at Oklahoma State, Auburn, TCU and now Clemson. He was defensive coordinator at TCU prior to coming to Clemson.

Herring has not made plans over the Christmas holidays for quite some time. He has been a part of college football as a player and coach since 1977. In those 18 seasons he has been to 13 bowl games, 10 as a coach and three as a player.

The Reggie Herring File

At Clemson: In his second season as inside linebackers coach.

Education: B.S. in Criminology from Florida State (1981).

College Playing Experience: Three-year starter at linebacker for Florida State.

Personal Data: Born on July 3, 1959...married the former Lisa Ward, and they have two children, Caroline and Adam.

John Latina

John Latina Centers and Guards

John Latina has been an offensive coach for a Division I program every year since 1979. He had quite a task last year in that he coached Clemson's entire offensive line. This year he will handle the centers and guards, a change that should allow him to spend more time with fewer players.

Latina showed his expertise as a teacher last year as Clemson's youngest offensive line in 20 years improved over the course of the season, leading to victories in three of the last four games.

The Virginia Tech graduate, who once played against Clemson as an offensive guard (1978), has worked at Virginia Tech, Pittsburgh, Temple and Kansas State. He has already coached in a bowl game with four different schools, Virginia Tech, Pittsburgh, Kansas State and Clemson.

During his career he has worked with Dan Marino, who led the Panthers to a 9-3 ledger and the Cotton Bowl in 1982. Paul Palmer, one of the top rushers in NCAA history with Temple, was also a member of Latina's offense in the 1980s.

Over the five years he was with the program, Kansas State's team in general and offense in particular, showed as much improvement as any in the country. In Latina's second season at Kansas State as offensive line coach and running game coordinator, the Wildcats set a school record for total offense with 4,231 yards. Kansas State advanced to a bowl game in 1992, just the second bowl appearance in school history.

The John Latina File

At Clemson: In his first season as guards and centers coach, his second season at Clemson.

Previous Coaching Experience: College - Assistant coach at Virginia Tech (1979-81); assistant coach at Pittsburgh (1982); offensive line coach at Temple (1983-88); running game coordinator at Kansas State (1989-93); offensive line coach at Clemson (Dec. 1993-present).

Education: Received a bachelor's degree from Virginia Tech (1979).

College Playing Experience: Four-year letter winner at Virginia Tech as an offensive guard (1975-78).

Personal Data: Born September 18, 1957...he and his wife Michele have two sons John Jr. (11) and Michael (8).

CLEMSON COACHES

Clemson Sports Notes For 1994-95

*Clemson was one of just four schools in the nation to have its football, men's basketball and baseball teams rank in the top 25 of the USA Today polls at one time or another during the season. Clemson was ranked as high as 22nd in football, 18th in men's basketball and number-one in baseball. Five programs ended the year ranked in the top 20 in the nation.

*Five Clemson athletic teams were chosen for NCAA Tournaments, including three Spring Sports. The Baseball team was chosen for the ninth straight year, while the men's tennis team was chosen for the 14th time during Chuck Kriese's 20 years. The golf team advanced to the NCAA national tournament for the 14th consecutive year. The women's soccer and volleyball teams were also chosen for NCAA play.

Duane Ross won Clemson's only National Championship, winning the Outdoor NCAA 110 hurdles. Bob Pollock coached the men's outdoor and indoor track teams to Top 15 finishes.

Academic Achievements

*Clemson had two first-team Academic All-Americans, one in baseball and one in football. Ed Glenn was a first-team CFA All-America football player. He graduated with a 3.9 GPA in Biology and will attend Vanderbilt Med School. Junior third baseman Paul Galloway became Clemson's first first-team Academic All-American in baseball in 1995. He was also first-team All-East Regional and All-ACC Tournament for his play on the field. He has had six consecutive 4.0 semesters.

*Clemson athletes won three of the most prestigious awards granted by the Atlantic Coast Conference. Javelin thrower Jodie Phillips won the Marie James Award, which is given to a female athlete for outstanding achievement in academics and athletics. Glenn won the Weaver Award for outstanding achievement in academics and athletics, and also won the Jim Tatum Award as the top student-athlete football player in the ACC.

*The women's tennis team posted a 3.64 team GPA in the Spring semester, the highest team GPA for a semester in Clemson history. Six of the eight members of the team made the dean's list, including four with a perfect 4.0.

*All Clemson student-athletes combined for a 2.55 GPA in the Spring semester, the highest one-semester GPA in eight years. A record 20 student-athletes were on the President's List (4.0 GPA), and a record 53 were on the Dean's List for the Spring semester of 1994-95.

Coaching Accomplishments

*Women's soccer coach Tracey Leone was named Southeast Regional Coach of the Year. She led the Lady Tigers to a number-13 final ranking in the ISAA poll and 15th in the final Soccer America poll.

*Baseball Coach Jack Leggett was named ACC Coach of the Year for the second straight year. He became just the third coach in ACC history to win coach of the year honors in his first two years in the league. All three coaches who have done this are from Clemson. The others are current Clemson men's track coach Bob Pollock and former Clemson football coach Charlie Pell.

*Jolene Hoover was named ACC Volleyball Coach of the Year as she took the Lady Tigers to the NCAA Tournament for the second straight year.

*Chuck Kriese became the ACC's all-time winningest men's tennis coach with a 7-0 win over Virginia Tech on February 4. He now has 439 career victories in his 20 years as head coach.

*Larry Penley set a Clemson record for taking a team to 12 straight NCAA Tournaments and won his third straight NCAA Regional championship.

STADIUM INFORMATION

SEASON TICKET HOLDERS/OTHER VISITORS: Season ticket holders and other visitors to the stadium are requested to enter Gates 1, 5, 9, 11, or 13. Persons with top deck tickets must enter the stadium via the ramps which are located behind the North and South stands. Ramp entrances are adjacent to Gates 1 and 13 on the South side and Gates 5 and 9 on the North side.

HANDICAPPED: Special entrances have been provided at Gates 1, 5 and 13 for the handicapped.

WILL-CALL: Will-call tickets can be picked up at the ticket office at Gate 9.

PASS-OUT HAND STAMPS: Pass-out hand stamps will be available at Gate 1, 5, 7, 9, 11, 13 and the top decks. Any person leaving the stadium other than with a team pass must have his or her hands stamped, as well as admittance stub, to be readmitted to the stadium.

Gates 4, 6 and 8 are closed prior to the games and are opened for exit purposes only.

EMERGENCIES:

First Aid stations are located at the following places: South side—Under Section J; North Side—Under Section T; North Top Deck—Under Section K; South Top Deck—Under Section E.

Trained nurses are on hand during each game. Should a doctor be needed, ask any usher, who knows the seat location of doctors. Ambulances are located at Gates 1, 5, 8, and 13.

TELEPHONE: Pay telephones are located at the stadium ticket offices at Gates 1, 5, 9, 13, top decks.

PUBLIC ADDRESS SYSTEM: The public address system is intended primarily for spectators' information concerning the game. Please do not request the use of the public address system to make social contacts.

RESTROOMS: Ladies' and men's restrooms are located between the stands and can be reached by exit from any portal.

LOST & FOUND: If any article is lost or found, please report it to the Gate 1 or Gate 10 information booths.

CONCESSION STANDS: Concession stands are located beneath all stands and can be reached from any portal.

EMERGENCY CALLS: Emergency calls are received in the Security Booth. The emergency number is (803) 656-2999.

PROHIBITED ITEMS: The following items are prohibited in Memorial Stadium: umbrellas, folding chairs, chaise lounges, food and beverage containers of any type, alcoholic beverages, thermos jugs, and ice chests.

NOTICE: Solicitation for any purpose is prohibited at an athletic contest in Clemson Memorial Stadium.

THE CLEMSON UNIVERSITY ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT REQUESTS "NO SMOKING" IN THE SEATING AREAS OF MEMORIAL STADIUM. THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION OF THIS REQUEST.

JUST DO IT.

Conference Center

Hosts of this year's most exciting conference action.

For a winning conference, trade show, banquet or meeting, make the handoff to Palmetto Expo Center. We're set to tackle special events of any size or scope. Our starting lineup includes 420,000 square feet of meeting and exhibit space, an outdoor courtyard, and banquet seating and service for up to 2,500 people. To set your game plan in motion, we field special teams for catering, light and sound, and event staging. For conference action, Palmetto Expo Center is an odds-on favorite.

Textile Hall Corporation is the proud donor of the Textile Bowl Trophy, presented each year to the winner of the Clemson-North Carolina State game in honor of the textile graduates of these two fine universities.

Saluting 100 years of Tiger Football.

1995 CLEMSON FOOTBALL

WOMEN'S TRACK

By Jessica Reo

Clemson's Lady Tiger track team returns to the starters blocks this year with a string of successes at its back and a bright future ahead. The team finished in second place at the ACC Indoor meet of '95 and third at the '95 ACC Outdoor Championships and returns almost all of the experience they garnered in both conference and national meets last season.

The Lady Tigers have excellence to build on. With returnees in Treshell Mayo, Nikki Sims, Simone Tomlinson, Samantha Watt, and Katja Pettinen, Clemson has a core group of 1996 All-America candidates and leaders that will take the Lady Tigers to a new level during the 1996 seasons. They have experience and have excelled in their events and have taken on the responsibility to lead the Lady Tigers to another top performance at the ACC's and to have an impact on the national level.

Wayne Coffman and assistants Chad Bell and Dave Kaiser have built a strong program in the last two years and look for that experience and their upperclassmen to take the reins this year and lead the Lady Tigers to a great season. The entire team is young, consisting of only four seniors, so potential for excellence is overwhelming and sure over the next years.

The sprinters and hurdlers are consistently strong under Coffman's direction, and this year is no exception. Treshell Mayo returns for her senior stint as one of the premiers sprinters in the country.

Mayo begins her senior season as a defending 200m semi-finalist at the NCAA Outdoor Championships of '95 and an ACC outdoor champion in the 200m. She ran at the USA National Championships and improved her times to that of a dominator in her event. She also returns to Clemson after a trip to Great Britain to compete for the United States in the USA vs. England meet. She realized her potential to be one of the best sprinters in the country and expects to capitalize on that this year. The North Carolina native is a prime candidate for All-America honors and should deliver this year in both the relays and the straight sprints.

Samantha Watt, a returning sophomore, was one of two freshman sprinters to make the trip to the indoor NCAA's. Watt returns to her prime as a 200m and 400m sprinter to lead the team and herself to more excellent performances this year. She is an All-America hopeful for the Lady Tigers in '96 and has the potential to live up to those expectations in both indoor and outdoor track, both sprints and relays.

Simone Tomlinson, also a returning sophomore, set a Clemson record last year when she ran a 6.80 in the 55m dash at the USA Championships during the indoor season. With that NCAA automatic qualifying time, Tomlinson put in her first appearance at the NCAA Indoor Championships. She was the ACC Indoor Champion in the 55m and looks to do the same in that event this year. The Canada-native ran in the 100m, the 55m, and the 200m for the Lady Tigers last season and returns to those events this year.

Recruits will add depth to Clemson's strong field in the sprints and relays, which Mayo, Watt, and Tomlinson all participated on last season.

The Lady Tigers take in Kim Norsworthy and Shenita Wilson, two junior college transfers who come to Clemson with the opportunity to run immediately for the Lady Tigers. They will add depth to both sprints and relays. Both Norsworthy and Wilson were JUCO All-Americans in the 400m dash during the 1995 season and added to their team's 4x400m relay squad. In 1993-94, Shenita Wilson's Odessa Junior College team was the Indoor JUCO national champions and she placed third in the 400m.

The Lady Tigers are strong in 800m, the 1500m, the 3,000m and the 5,000m again this year. Senior Christine Engel will add to her duties as a cross country runner and participate again in the distance events during indoor and outdoor track. Cecilia Askeroth, Julianne Littman and Azurdee Kennedy will also add their expertise to the middle distance category as well.

Kennedy red-shirted in '95 but is expected to return in good shape to make a contribution right away to the middle distance events.

The distance group consists of Meredith Ford and Tina Jensen. Both are expected to score in the conference meets this year after putting up points during the '95 indoor and outdoor conference championships. Megan Hartman will concentrate on the 3,000m this year. She has the potential to score at the conference meet and expectations are high for her this season. Lauren Huber, entering as a freshman, should also impact this area in her first term as a Lady Tiger.

Incoming freshmen should have ample opportunity to make their mark on the Lady Tiger distance program. Cecilia Askeroth comes to Clemson as the second-ranked 800m run champion in Sweden from 1993. She was also the state champion in Germany in the 800m in 1993-1994, but adds her expertise and international experience to the Lady Tigers distance program. Both Julianne Littman and Lauren Huber come from New York to add to Clemson's distance talents.

Sharia Clinkscales is definitely the one to watch in the high jump this year. Her potential is evident and she is expected to improve on her heights even more this year to reach All-America status. She was All-ACC during her freshman and sophomore years and expectations for All-ACC for a third year, as well as an ACC individual title in the event, are high in '96.

The Lady Tigers are also looking for good things out of Trevi Frazier. This junior returns to the line-up after scoring in both outdoor and indoor ACC championships in '95 and '94. She has shown signs of being one of the top jumpers in the conference in the long and triple jumps, but needs to be consistent.

Katja Pettinen, better known for her excellence in the heptathlon last year, adds to the jumps. She scored in the ACC indoors for the Lady Tigers in '95 and should be able to score at the conference meet.

Nichole Robinson continued to improve throughout the year as a freshman last season. She used the year to experience collegiate competition and returns as a seasoned veteran during her sophomore year.

Nikki Sims returns for her junior year as a three-time ACC Champion, a two-time NCAA qualifier, and the co-MVP of the 1995 ACC Outdoor Championships. She is one of Clemson's '96 All-America candidates and doubles as a discus thrower. She will add the 20 lb weight and the hammer to her repertoire this year as the ACC adds the events to conference competition.

Pettinen returns for her sophomore season after scoring in the shot and javelin during the '95 season. She will be counted on for her depth, but there will be a shift in focus to incoming freshman Aija Kortjesja.

Kortjesja joins the Lady Tigers this year as an international competitor during her high school years. She joins Finland teammate Pettinen at Clemson to take charge of some of the throwing events. She is primarily a heptathlete who can also throw the shot, discus, and javelin.

Ann Marie McAuley and Julie Polovick, two incoming freshmen, will add depth to the throws as well. Both throw shot and discus and have been extremely successful in those events during their high school careers.

Pettinen, who impacted many of the Lady Tigers field events during her freshman year, returns as the primary heptathlete for the Lady Tigers in '96. She was the 12th place finisher at the NCAA Outdoor Championships of 1995 and finished in third at the outdoor ACC's. She broke Clemson's record as a freshman in the heptathlon and will be depended on heavily during the 1996 contests.

Adding to Pettinen's return is the presence of senior Aimee Stout. Stout has been consistently strong as a Lady Tiger in the heptathlon and other events in past years. She is a leader and a fierce competitor who will add depth and experience to the event.

Aija Kortjesja enters the picture in the multi-events as well. She has international experience and should impact the heptathlon, as well as other events, immediately for the Lady Tigers.

Senior Treshell Mayo is one of the top sprinters in the country.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

The legend of Death Valley continues in 1995 as 16 football games will be played on its surface. Clemson will play its normal six regular season contests, while the Carolina Panthers will play in the facility 10 times, two preseason contests and eight regular season games.

What does the NFL's presence mean in 1995? If the stadium is good enough for the Carolina Panthers, it must be quite a facility. In fact, minimal changes have been made to make it ready for the Panthers and the National Football League.

This outstanding stadium that has kept pace with the changing world of college football has seen the Tigers run up a 53-year record of 184-67-7, including a 26-5-1 ledger over the last five seasons. Clemson had a 16-game unbeaten streak at home between 1990-92 and has a career winning ratio of 73.0 percent.

The stadium has definitely been good to the Tigers who call it home, but the stadium was constructed against the advice of at least one Clemson coach. Just before head coach Jess Neely left for Rice University after the 1939 season, he gave Clemson a message. "Don't ever let them talk you into building a big stadium," he said. "Put about 10,000 seats behind the Y.M.C.A. That's all you'll ever need'.

Instead of following Coach Neely's advice, however, Clemson officials decided to build the new stadium in a valley on the western part of campus. The place would take some clearing-there were many trees, but luckily there were no hedges.

The crews went to work: clearing, cutting, pouring, and forming. Finally, on September 19, 1942, Clemson Memorial Stadium opened with the Tiger Football team thrashing Presbyterian College, 32-13. Those 20,000 seats installed for Opening Day would soon grow; and grow and grow.

When the original part of the stadium was built in the early 40's, much of the work was done by scholarship athletes, including many football players. The first staking out of the stadium was done by two members of the football team, A.N. Cameron and Hugh Webb. Webb returned to Clemson years later to be an architecture professor, and Cameron went on to become a civil engineer in Louisiana.

The building of the stadium did not proceed without a few problems. One day during the clearing of the land, one young football player proudly announced that he was not allergic to poison oak. He then commenced to attack the poison oak with a swing blade, throwing the plants to and fro. The next day, however, the boy was swollen twice his size and had to be put in the hospital.

There are many other stories about the stadium including one stating that Frank Howard put a chew of tobacco in each corner of the stadium as the concrete poured.

Howard says that the seeding of the grass caused a few problems. "About 40 people and I laid sod on the field," he says. "After three weeks, on July 15, we had only gotten halfway through.

"I told them that it had taken us three weeks to get that far, and I would give them three more week's pay for however long it took. I also told them we would have 50 gallons of ice cream when we got through. After that it took them three days to do the rest of the field. Then we sat down in the middle of the field and ate up that whole 50 gallons."

Howard says that on the first day of the first game in the stadium, "the gates were hung at 1:00 pm and we played at 2:00 pm." But that would be all of the construction for a while. Then in 1958, 18,000 sideline seats were added and, in 1960, a total of 5,658 West end zone seats were added in response to increasing attendance. With the large end zone, "Green Grass" section, this expansion increased capacity to about 53,000.

Later, upper decks were added to each side of the stadium as crowds swelled-the first one in 1978 and the second in 1983. This increased capacity to over 81,473 which makes it one of the 10 largest on-campus stadiums in the country.

The effect spiraling inflation has had in this century can be dramatically seen in the differences in stadium construction. The original part of the stadium was built at a cost of $125,000 or at $6.25 a seat. The newest upper deck was finished in 1983 at a cost of $13.5 million, or $866 a seat.

Through the years, Memorial Stadium has become known as "Death Valley." It was tagged this by the late Presbyterian coach, Lonnie McMillan. After bringing his P.C. Teams to Clemson for years and getting whipped, McMillan said the place was like Death Valley. A few years later the name stuck.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 15 in the nation in attendance for 13 straight years.

VICKERY HALL

Clemson University's commitment to provide its student-athletes with the very best of facilities is evident in many ways. From the soaring upper decks of Memorial Stadium, to the state-of-the-art strength training facility, young men and women from all 18 of Clemson's varsity sports have the very best in facilities for training and competition. Vickery Hall is no exception, as the $3 million structure is as impressive aesthetically as any of the other facilities. But the importance of Vickery Hall to the Clemson University Athletic Department is not found in the structure itself, but in the many programs that the building houses.

Vickery Hall opened in the spring of 1991 and is the first facility in the nation originally constructed for the purposes of meeting the comprehensive needs of student-athletes. The two-story, 27,000-square-foot building is open throughout the day and into the evening to accommodate the extended schedules of student-athletes, and consolidates a variety of academic services for their use.

The Vickery Hall facility and staff ranks among the best in the nation and joined Boston College as the only two programs of its kind to become certified in 1995.

The philosophy behind Vickery Hall is to provide the Clemson student-athlete with a program that will meet his or her needs academically, in personal growth and development, and with career assistance. Vickery Hall is tangible evidence that, at Clemson, the athletic department has made a commitment to make the student-athlete's total experience a rewarding one, even after he or she enters the professional world.

"Vickery Hall is one of the most important facilities the Clemson University Athletic Department has ever built or will ever build. It makes a philosophical statement about the institutional commitment - giving our student-athletes the same opportunity to achieve their full potential academically that we give them athletically. We're very serious about that," said Athletic Director Bobby Robinson.

Vickery Hall is located in the mainstream of east campus, behind Jordan Hall at the top of Bryan Mall. The main entrance to the building is a 1,570-square foot reception/office area, comprised of five advisers' offices, two graduate student offices, and a conference room. Also located on the bottom floor is the office of Bill D'Andrea, the director of Clemson's student-athlete enrichment program.

Vickery Hall operates under the guidelines and policies of the university and the center's staff adheres strictly to the rules and ethical conduct standards of the university. In addition to the director, the staff also consists of six full-time advisers, two graduate assistants, and 50 tutors.

The building also boasts a 175-seat auditorium to be used for classes, team meetings, review sessions, and seminars. The various speakers and lecturers who come to work with Clemson student-athletes as part of the student-enrichment program also use this facility.

Another area of the main floor, the computer resources area, consists of a general computer tutoring room and a computer science tutoring room. The computer room contains 30 personal computers for hands-on computer tutoring, word processing and other general uses.

The 13,000-square-foot study and tutoring area on the second floor comprises the majority of the center. This area contains 28 tutorial rooms, including a large 65-seat study room and nine 20-seat study rooms, which are designed as classrooms with freestanding desks. There are 10 classrooms located on the first floor.

The facility has paid dividends. In the spring semester of 1995, Clemson student-athletes recorded a 2.55 GPA, highest on record. Eighty-three student-athletes made the ACC Academic Honor Roll in 1994-95, an all-time record. Records were also eclipsed in terms of dean's list athletes. It is also a reason a record four Tiger football players are graduate students in 1995.

The facilities at Vickery Hall helped Warren Forney earn his undergrad degree in 3 1/2 years.

Student-Athlete Career Assistance Program

The Student-Athlete Career Assistance Program is one of the most important programs provided by the staff of Vickery Hall. The philosophy of this program is to provide student-athletes with job searching skills and strategies, internships, practicum experience as well as summer employment. These programs are designed to address specific career opportunities through a program that uses each year to gain information on the student-athlete.

By using the resources available to the University, Alumni Center and the Athletic Department, former Tiger gridder James Earle is working to establish a network of businesses, companies, and executives who will help assist with The Summer Employment Assistance Program. The program's main goal is to provide the student-athlete with a job experience and a work history, which he or she can apply to his or her academic discipline.

The Long Term Career Assistance Program, also coordinated by Earle, will be coordinated from the academic colleges, the Placement Center, and through the Athletic Department contacts. This program is designed to better prepare the student-athlete for full-time employment and will focus on resume writing and interview techniques so that each student-athlete will be competitive and aggressive when dealing with companies who visit the Clemson campus.

Personal Growth Program

Another aspect of Clemson University's commitment to help student-athletes reach their potential in all areas of their life - academically, athletically, and socially, is the personal growth program. This program is one of the many purposes of Vickery Hall. This particular area of student development is designed to enhance and support the lives of student-athletes during their enrollment in college as well as in their life experiences after graduation.

Ginty Porter, the Development Coordinator, and Vickery Hall staff realize that student-athletes have more obligations than a regular college student. The personal growth program seeks to eliminate some of the stresses of adjustment to the higher level of academics and athletics. It is the groups special task to assist the student-athlete by creating a finely tuned balance of all areas to ensure success in obtaining a Clemson University degree, by supporting successful athletic practice and competition, enhancing personal growth, and helping with the transition to life after college.

LADY TIGER BASKETBALL

by Sam Blackman

Adversity can be a impediment or a building block.

Clemson started the 1994-95 season losing two starters with knee injuries before the month of December. This left the team with four freshmen, three sophomores, three juniors and only one senior. However the team held together, winning the Northern Lights Invitational against a national field, and produced 22 wins and an appearance in the National Women's Invitational Tournament. What looked bleak at the beginning, developed into another successful campaign for Jim Davis's Lady Tigers. He has brought the program to the level where 20 wins and a postseason bid are average expectations.

This season the Lady Tigers will be young with five incoming freshmen—described by Davis as "five fine athletes". Another positive intangible that was derived from last year's squad is experience. The young people had to fill the shoes of upper classmen, and learned the all important quality of leadership.

"The real positive element that comes to mind from last season and the injury setbacks was the young players' experience level," said Davis, who is approaching the 200-win mark on the NCAA Division I level in just nine years. "Even though we can be described as young this season, we are going to have an experienced team."

Coach Davis feels as if this team will be a fundamental team and will have the qualities it takes to be successful, a powerful inside game and excellent free throw shooting. "I think our inside game will be better and we will have quality depth on the inside. We should be able to go with power like never before. In the past we had to rely on a three-guard offense.

"We are excited about being bigger at the small forward position. The small forward position at Clemson will be an inside threat capable of better inside scoring this season. We will have a good four-person rotation and all will be able to contribute on the inside.

"I think we bettered ourselves in recruiting. We signed five outstanding athletes. All of our newcomers can run and jump well, and play the up tempo style, which our fans have grown accustomed in the past years."

Clemson had the third best three-point field goal percentage in school history last season with a .375 mark (100-267). However Davis foresees the Lady Tigers being an even better outside shooting team.

"Our perimeter shooters will be young, but we will have good three-point shooters. Amy Geren (a newcomer) can shoot from the professional three-point line." The Tigers need someone to replace ACC all-time three-point leader Tara Saunooke, who contributed greatly to that .375 outside shooting effort last season.

A Davis emphasis will be on defense, which he hopes leads to more offense. "We should be better defensively this year. Last season, we lacked intensity in order to be a top 25 team. We must turn it up on defense. Our players worked hard on becoming faster and stronger in off-season conditioning."

BACKCOURT

Clemson has four guards returning to the squad. The Lady Tigers could show different looks at this position with the wealth of talent and the depth Clemson possesses.

Senior Stephanie Ridgeway is the Lady Tigers leading returning scorer with a 12.9 average. She was third on the team in steals with 40, so she has the big play capability on defense to turn the momentum of a game.

"Stephanie is a good penetrator. She has explosive speed and has a knack of being able to score over taller people. She shoots well off the dribble and is a very capable three-point shooter. Stephanie can be called instant offense."

Angie Salyer was the starting point guard for the Lady Tigers in 1994-95 and was a very dependable ball handler. Salyer finished the season with 70 assists and averaged 20.0 minutes per game. She was voted the most improved player on the team in 1994-95. Jeanette Davis saw a great deal of action as a freshman, as she played in 32 games and started 10. She was the Lady Tigers fifth leading scorer with a 5.8 average and finished the season with 55 assists.

Senior Dory Kidd saw action at point guard and the off guard last season. She led the team in assists with 88, and is the only four-year player on the team. "Dory showed improvement last season and had bright moments for us. Dory is capable of having a solid year—she is a tremendous athlete."

Clemson signed Ito Umoh (5-7) and Amy

Geren (5-11) to the Lady Tiger guard corp. Umoh was a three-time all-state selection at Hephzibah High School in Georgia where she averaged 20.0 ppg. and 8.0 rpg. her senior season. Amy Geren is a long distance sharp-shooter who averaged 18.0 ppg. and 12.0 rebounds her senior season at Bradley Central High School in Cleveland, TN. She scored over 1,000 points during her career and had both her basketball and volleyball jerseys retired. "When she steps across the half court line, she is in range," said Davis.

FRONT COURT

The Lady Tigers return four veterans in the frontcourt, including Laura Cottrell, Jennifer Davis, Jaci Stimson, and Kerri Thomas.

Cottrell (6-1) was the Lady Tigers' leading rebounder last season with an 8.5 mark. She started 25 games and was the team's most accurate shooter hitting 141-272 from the field for a .518 percentage. "Laura has her best days ahead of her. She has been slowed by injuries and hasn't been able to play healthy in her career. Laura can shoot the three, and go inside as a power player."

Jaci Stimson (6-3) returns as the Lady Tigers second leading rebounder (4.5 rpg.). Stimson also was a top shooter for the Lady Tigers as she hit an even 50 percent. "In the last 10 or 12 games last season, she played as well as anyone on our team. Jaci has one of the best shooting touches of anyone we have ever had. She has really worked hard in the offseason in the weightroom and is in the best shape of her career by far."

Jennifer Davis (6-1) played in 23 games last season and was slowed at the beginning of the year with an ankle injury. She averaged 2.0 ppg., and 2.2 rpg, but should be ready to be a major contributor this year. She and her twin sister are both sound fundamental players. Kerri Thomas (6-3) started nine games as a freshman in 1994 and she finished the year averaging 3.6 rpg, but was coming on strong at season's end.

Clemson added Natasha Anderson, Nikki Blassingame, and Autumn Sam to the frontcourt. With the addition of the players, the Lady Tigers have extra height and power inside. Anderson (6-0) averaged 18.0 points and 15.0 rebounds her senior season at Dorman High School in Spartanburg. She finished her career scoring 1,680 points and was named the MVP at the state all-star games in both volleyball and basketball.

Blassingame (6-3) averaged 17.0 points and 13.0 rebounds at Seneca High School and was a Parade All-American. "Nikki is a great athlete and is quick off her feet. She can run the floor very well and has excellent hands. She is a very fine shot blocker and with the development of upper body strength, she could be a premier player in the ACC. Sam (6-2) averaged 18.0 points and 12.0 rebounds at Norcross High School in Norcross, GA. She was a two-time all-state selection during her career.

Laura Cottrell will have to be a force on the inside if Clemson is to advance to post-season play for the ninth straight year.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

By Tim Bourret

Travis Harvey

Travis Harvey has participated in 31 games in his Clemson career, serving as the Tigers holder and a reserve quarterback. When you look at the statistics of Clemson placekickers during that time, you see nothing but success. Harvey has as much to do with that as the kickers who are knocking the ball through the uprights.

Harvey, who has also played in three games at quarterback in his career, has held for Nelson Welch and Jeff Sauve over the last three years. During that time Welch has earned all-conference and All-America mention and Sauve is on his way to similar acclaim with a 12-17 season in terms of field goals. Harvey's good hands and swift sets are the key.

"Travis has done a consistently good job holding for us for three years," said Clemson special teams coach Rich Bisaccia. "That job doesn't get a lot of attention, but it is important. It is one of those jobs where you only hear about it if there is a mistake made. But, it is comforting to have a guy who has done it for so long."

Seldom does a holder become one of the stars of the game, but it happened to Harvey in 1993. Clemson had just scored a touchdown on a pass from Louis Solomon to Terry Smith to close within 10-6 against Georgia Tech. On the extra point attempt, the snap was difficult to handle.

Instead of panicking, Harvey picked the ball up and charged towards the endzone. He showed his toughness by running over a Yellow Jacket defender and into the endzone for two points. The play proved to be very important in Clemson's 16-13 victory, a key win in Clemson's drive to the Peach Bowl that season.

In his three years as the holder, Clemson kickers have missed just one extra point and have converted 75 percent of their field goals, one of the highest rates in the country.

Orlando Davis

Seldom does a walk-on work his way into the depth chart at the skill positions. Whatever the reason, a high percentage of the scholarships go to that area of a football program. But, wide receiver Orlando Davis has overcome those odds and has been a contributor to this year's Tiger team.

Davis has played in four contests this year, including a career high 20 plays in the Western Carolina contest when he caught a 21-yard pass from Louis Solomon. He also has played on scrimmage plays against N.C. State, Maryland and Georgia Tech. He is the only walk-on who has played at a back or wide receiver position in more than one game this year.

"Orlando is a guy who comes to practice everyday ready to compete," said wide receivers coach Rick Stockstill. "He has made significant improvement from the first day he walked on in 1992. That is a credit to him because you usually don't see that type of improvement from a walk-on."

Davis is a native of Durham, NC where he played at North Durham high school. He was an all-conference player who played on a conference championship team for Ken Browning's program.

Kelton Dunnican

Kelton Dunnican has been Mr. Versatility for the Tigers over the last two years. The junior college transfer has gone back and forth between the fullback and linebacker positions in 1994 and 1995. This year he has seen most of his time at fullback, but he was a linebacker last spring.

The native of Sumter has eight carries for 16 yards this season and has been a reliable blocker when called upon. He saw his most action against Western Carolina when he had 31 plays in Clemson's 55-9 victory.

Dunnican has had the chance to show off his defensive abilities as a special teams player. So far this year he has had seven special teams tackles, with at least one coming in five different games. He ranks fourth on the team in special teams tackles entering today's game. Last year he had 10 special teams tackles in 11 games, the second highest total on the team.

"Kelton is a key member of our special teams. He is one of the primary guys on our kickoff return and punt teams. He has a sixth sense for where the return man is going." Dunnican's 17 special teams tackles are more than any other Tiger over the last two years.

Dunnican transferred to Clemson from Northeast Oklahoma Junior College in 1994. He ran for over 400 yards as a fullback at that school in 1992, but was injured for most of his sophomore season. In high school he was an all-state performer for Tom Lewis at Sumter High.

HE'S NEVER TAKEN AN EXTRA POINT FOR GRANTED.

If the game is close, maybe you'll slide to the edge of your seat as the kicker sets up for the extra point. Maybe.

But perhaps you don't realize just how important every point is to someone like Matthew.

Matthew knows everything there is to know about child abuse. He's seen it and he's felt it. He is an expert at hiding in the closet, under the bed and beneath the house. But for the first time in his life, Matthew is learning what it's like to be loved.

For every point Clemson scores this season, First Union will donate $25 to Helping Hands of Clemson, a non-profit organization of professionals and volunteers dedicated to helping and caring for a lot of children just like Matthew.

So, this year when you're cheering for the Tigers, cheer a little louder for Matthew. Everyone at First Union will be.

DWAYNE MORGAN

By Jamie Hill

Father knows best.

Every person at one point or another has heard this phrase bellowed out by a member of the family. At a young age most teenagers don't like to be told what to do, even if it is from their father.

Dwayne Morgan, as most everyone, went through this same type scenario. As a young rebellious teenager, Morgan wasn't very receptive to constructive criticism, and even less keen on following orders.

"When I was growing up, my father taught me things that he thought would be valuable to me later on in life and I didn't think that they would be of importance, at the time. I was very rebellious to what he said, and that got me into a lot of trouble when I was younger, because I didn't know right from wrong. It caused me a lot of heartache."

As he grew up, Morgan came to learn that what his father had been preaching, wasn't very far from the truth. "As I've gotten older, now I can see that what he was saying really made sense and was something that I should have followed."

Growing up in Griffin, GA, Morgan saw friends from Griffin High School like Stacy Long and Stacy Driver move on to the collegiate level and become star performers for Clemson University. "Coming out of high school, I really didn't think I had my priorities in line to be able to go to a major Division One university. I saw guys from my high school, Long and Driver, come to Clemson and have great careers. They were a big motivation for me." Long was a first-team All-America guard for Clemson in 1989 and 1990, while Driver is one of Clemson's top six rushers in history with over 2200 yards.

After finishing high school, Morgan enrolled in Northeast Oklahoma Junior College, where he went on to earn JUCO All-America honors. He was listed as a member of the 1994 SuperPrep JUCO Top 100 team and a 1993 JC Gridwire All-American. Morgan was a consistent lineman during the 1992 and 1993 seasons, including the 1993 season when he posted a 85 percent grade for the entire season.

Transferring to Clemson from junior college should have posed a giant obstacle for Morgan. Most junior college transfers struggle their first year and usually red-shirt. But, Morgan became a starter in the offensive line from day one.

"Transferring to Clemson from junior college was a very difficult thing to do, because junior college was actually an advanced high school level of football. At the Division One level, it is a totally new ballgame, because the linemen on the other side of the ball are equal if not better than you are. In junior college, the competition level wasn't consistent and you could face a defensive lineman who shouldn't even be on the field."

Morgan was an instant success in the offensive line, starting every game his first year at Clemson. That mark was a first for a first year junior college player at Clemson. As a preseason All-ACC candidate according to Athlon magazine for his "rookie" season, Morgan impressed more than the spectators. Six times Morgan graded out as a "winner" in terms of performance according to the coaches. He finished the season third on the offense in terms of participation with 668 total plays behind fellow offensive linemen Glen Rountree (738) and Will Young (713).

Morgan's size was an important asset in Clemson's steady offensive line improvement near the end of the 1994 campaign. He collected 46 knockdown blocks to lead the team, including 21 during Clemson's three-game win streak to begin the close of the season. During that three-game win streak, Clemson's offensive production steadily increased. The Tigers outscored their opponents 72-35, rushed for 261.3 yards per game, increased their total offense per game to 347.7 yards per game and controlled the clock for an average of 34:37.

Morgan's consistency and improvement have carried over into the 1995 season. After nine games into the season, he has proven to be as good if not better than his 1994 season form. He has posted 37 knockdown blocks and is a candidate for All-ACC honors, as the Tigers have averaged over 380 yards per game, one of the top 10 figures in Clemson history.

Role models are extremely important to people who strive to reach their potential. Morgan's father has provided Dwayne with the knowledge as to how to attain those goals, but sometimes parents or friends are just a piece of the puzzle.

As an aspiring NFL player, Morgan didn't list Deion Sanders, Emmitt Smith, or even Steve Young as his most favorite player. One would automatically think of the big defensive names that might make Dwayne's top ten list. Not even close.

The most unrecognized and often least publicized player isn't the punter or placekicker, but rather the offensive line. In fact, Morgan's favorite player is an offensive lineman. Richmond Webb of the Miami Dolphins tops Morgan's list of favorite players.

"Richmond is just a great player and one that stands out in my mind. Every chance I get, I'll try to sit down and analyze his style of play and then model it to my own style. I think he's a real positive influence on my football career, because I'm always trying to learn new things and improve, hoping to reach the next level."

While Webb has had an influence on Morgan from a distance, his friendship with teammate Warren Forney has also been a positive in Morgan's final year at Clemson. "Warren Forney has become a good friend to me, because I feel like I can go to him and talk about something that's bothering me. He knows how to help me out and work through the problems and tough times."

Determination, dedication, hard work and friendship didn't come easy for Dwayne Morgan, but through it all, he discovered that his father knew best.

Morgan is the first junior college transfer to start in each of his two years at Clemson.

ROBERT JACKSON

By Brett Berg

Sunny skies, bikinis, palm trees, and beaches. What you may ask, does this have to do with Clemson, South Carolina in November? Well even though the warm comforting beaches of California are thousands of miles away, we have our own little piece of sunshine right here in Clemson. Sure California has Baywatch, with its big lifeguard stars such as David Hasselhoff and Pamela Denise Anderson. They may be big, but we have one who's bigger. His name is Robert Jackson and not only is he the biggest man on the football field, but the biggest lifeguard on the beach.

You see Jackson not only knocks opposing defenders around every fall Saturday, he saves lives in the summer months too. A certified lifeguard, Jackson may be considered a hero to the youth who look up to him as a football player, but he is more of a hero to his neighborhood back home in Washington, D.C. When Jackson used to lifeguard at his neighborhood pool, he did more than the stars on Baywatch will probably ever do. A couple of summers back, Robert saved not only one, but two drowning people at the neighborhood pool.

One boy jumped off of the diving board in the deep end of the pool, panicked and began to go under. The female lifeguard in the deep end of the pool attempted to rescue him, but the boy became entangled in the girls shirt. The two quickly began to sink and Robert bolted into action. "I dove into the pool, grabbed the boy around the neck, and threw him to the side. Then I grabbed the girl lifeguard and pulled her out. They were okay, but just scared."

Although we may consider Robert to be a hero after such an incident, he does not consider himself to be one at all. Instead his hero is his mother. Mrs. Lizzie Jackson is the mother of two and a retired doctor who still lives near the Washington D.C. area. Robert considers his mom a hero, "for raising my sister and I after our father passed away. My father died when I was in 11th grade and mom really took care of us. My mom and sister are the most important people in my life."

Before Robert arrived at Clemson, he enjoyed his last year at home and celebrated his college scholarship. Only he did it by eating. So much so, that he weighed 381 pounds when he reported as a freshman. "I got overweight," Jackson said. "When I arrived here, Coach (Wally) Ake, who recruited me, looked at me and said, 'Oh my, what have you done to yourself?'"

Yes, it is true that Clemson has been known for having some very large players, such as William "The Refrigerator" Perry. "The Frig" has nothing on Robert, however. At left tackle, Robert is not only the largest player on this year's team, he is the largest player in all of Clemson history. He now stands 6-foot-6 and has trimmed down to 325.

After being red-shirted as an incoming freshman, Jackson has seen considerable playing time. He has played in 31 of Clemson's last 32 games going into today's contest. He also has competed in over 1500 plays and over 60 knockdown blocks in his career. He has been a starter in two games this year and has averaged 40 plays per game.

Two games stand out for Jackson this year, the Maryland contest in College Park when he started and had a considerable hand in Clemson rushing for 320 yards, and the Wake Forest game when he had five knockdown blocks in 44 plays and helped the Clemson offense gain over 470 yards.

Jackson's most productive year in the Tiger uniform was in 1993. He started at offensive tackle in 10 of the 11 regular season games, competed in 677 plays and had 38 knockdown blocks. He also had his best all-around game against Georgia Tech when he graded out at 79 percent and posted a season high seven knock down blocks.

While, the 1993 season was Jackson's most productive year, it was also his most challenging. A physical problem developed in the season finale against South Carolina when a lineman stepped on his leg. He said it felt like a cramp at the time and continued to finish the game. But, the pain continued for a few days and when it would not go away he sought medical attention.

"I was so pigheaded that I did not want to bother with any doctors. I was supposed to go home for Thanksgiving on Wednesday." Jackson was immediately admitted to the hospital with a blood clot in his leg. "They told me if I had left, I would have been dead before I hit Raleigh."

After leaving the hospital Jackson was forced to miss the 1993 Peach Bowl victory over Kentucky because of his injury. "It was really tough missing that bowl game," said Jackson. "I just wanted to play beside Stacey (Seegars) one last time."

Coming out of high school, Jackson was a highly touted recruit, with NC State, Georgia Tech, Tennessee, Alabama, and Clemson being his final five choices. He was named the Gatorade Player-of-the-Year in Washington D.C. and the D.C. Touchdown Club's Player-of-the-Year in 1990. He was also selected as a SuperPrep All-American and was chosen as the 13th best player in the nation by USA Today. He was a three-year starter in high school and had 57 tackles, 10 sacks, and recovered two fumbles as a senior at Woodson High School. He also won the High School heavyweight championship in the bench-press competition with a 390-pound lift as a senior.

"Coming out of high school I was looking to go to a school where the staff was honest. I wanted coaches who made football their career. I chose Clemson because I believed in what it stands for," said Jackson, "and I still believe in what Clemson stands for."

Coach Les Herrin, Jackson's position coach, feels Jackson has played his best football this year. "He has done everything I've asked him to do. If Robert can continue doing what he's doing, he will be very successful in life, and that is all you can hope for as a coach. He has been a key player in the offensive line, allowing us a good rotation at the tackle position."

Jackson is majoring in Industrial Education and will graduate in the spring. He looks to move on to a coaching career after graduation. "My goal is to be the head football coach of a Division I team by the time I'm 43," said Jackson. "I want to win a National Championship by the time I'm 46."

We may chuckle a bit at that prediction, but don't put it past a man who once saved two people at the same time.

Jackson once saved the lives of two people with one dive. He has helped save the Clemson offense with clutch blocking in 1995.

Traditions are something that don't happen overnight, they evolve over a number of years. One tradition at Clemson that is going strong and heading into its 61st year is IPTAY. The IPTAY Scholarship Foundation, is known throughout the country for its faithful and generous contributions by its supporters. A recent USA Today article called IPTAY the best-known organization of its kind in the nation. The article noted that at a time when college athletic costs are rising IPTAY continues to lead the way in supporting athletic scholarships at Clemson. IPTAY plays a major role in ensuring that all 18 of the varsity sports at Clemson are given the maximum amount of scholarships allowed by the NCAA.

IPTAY completed another record breaking year in 1994-95 when it went over the $6 million mark for the second straight year. The total number of members reached 19,000. The Tiger Cub Club was introduced in 1993, giving Clemson fans from birth to age 22 a chance to become involved in Tiger athletics. That club is now approaching the 2,000 mark in terms of members.

Thanks to this support, Clemson enjoyed another banner year in 1994-95. Nine Clemson teams, including five spring sports, advanced to NCAA play. Clemson was one of four schools in the nation to have its football, basketball, and baseball teams ranked in the top 25 of the USA Today poll at one time or another. Clemson had four ACC Rookie-of-the-Year selections and 22 All-Americans.

IPTAY is recognized as one of the oldest, largest and most successful athletic fundraising organizations in America. IPTAY was the first athletic fundraising organization in the country to top the two, three, four, and five-million dollar marks in annual donations.

In 1934, Dr. Rupert Fike founded IPTAY with a very simple purpose in mind: IPTAY provides funds for athletic scholarships. Since 1934 IPTAY has certainly met Fike's goal, providing scholarships for over 5,000 student-athletes, trainers, and managers.

IPTAY currently provides the funds for tutorial programs staffed by trained academic advisors, assisted by graduate and undergraduate students. This support is intended to ensure that all student-athletes are given the opportunity to earn their degree while participating in athletics.

IPTAY donors have also played an intricate role in the "Campaign for Clemson", a long range fund-raising project of the University. The University's original goal of 62 million dollars was surpassed with the next goal of 78 million also being surpassed in the campaign that ended on June 30, 1992. IPTAY provided three million dollars with ongoing opportunities for donors to be part of the Vickery Hall Academic Learning Center.

Vickery Hall, located on East Campus, is a 27,000 square foot facility that houses the tutoring and advising programs for student-athletes. The building contains various-sized study and tutoring rooms used for individual study as well as small group instruction.

This building is a major reason Clemson student-athletes had a record 2.55 GPA in the Spring Semester of 1995. Additionally, 83 student-athletes made the ACC Academic Honor Roll, the highest figure in Clemson history. A record number of students also made the Dean's List and the President's List.

The generous support of loyal donors to IPTAY has allowed the organization to go beyond the funding of athletic scholarships by providing the financial basis for many of the unparalleled athletic facilities at Clemson.

Since 1978, IPTAY has provided the funding for $34 million of capital improvements in the area of athletics. These improvements include the expansion of the football stadium, the renovated baseball facility (Tiger Field), the outdoor track with new stadium facilities, the indoor tennis facility, the soccer stadium, the weight room, the new golf practice area, a new cross country course, the McFadden Building, and the IPTAY/Ticket office facility.

The facilities are among the best in the country, at least that must be the opinion of the NCAA. Over the last two years Clemson has played host to NCAA events in four different sports, including three in 1994-95.

IPTAY is also proud to provide the funding for Tiger Band. Each year IPTAY establishes financial support for travel, uniforms and equipment for this integral part of the Clemson athletic program.

While IPTAY is primarily concerned with athletic fundraising, the mission of Clemson University has not been overlooked. The IPTAY Academic Scholarship Endowment was created to help meet the need for more academic scholarships for non-athletes who are highly qualified academically. This scholarship endowment is funded by certain company gifts that are made as a result of employee contributions to IPTAY. In addition, the athletic department has made generous contributions to the endowment from athletic revenues.

The IPTAY Academic Fund is presently the largest scholarship endowment of its kind at Clemson providing $2.3 million in funds, currently benefitting more than 60 students. IPTAY's support extends to all of the student body.

The tremendous support of IPTAY is due, in large part, to the organizational makeup that allows donors to be as close to IPTAY as they are to their local IPTAY leadership. Each of South Carolina's 46 counties has an IPTAY County chairman, and every county is allotted an IPTAY representative for every 35 donors.

One important way IPTAY keeps in touch with its membership is the annual Clemson Club meeting held in April and May of each year. These meetings, which feature different coaches and administrators are just one of the ways of making the local IPTAY members feel close to Clemson.

Clemson University will continue to be recognized and respected on the national level athletically and academically with the full support of IPTAY. IPTAY will continue to be successful because a loyal commitment to Clemson University is a way of life in the hearts of Clemson alumni and friends.

One of the factors in Dr. Deno Curris' decision to come to Clemson was the consistent love of the school expressed by Clemson graduates and IPTAY members.

1995 CLEMSON FOOTBALL

HALL OF FAMERS

By Sam Blackman

Perhaps one of the greatest elements of sport is tradition.

When mentioning a great athlete or a game from the past it often brings fond memories to mind. Today sports trivia is very popular making the past come alive again. Traditions are also built from the past and this year's Clemson Athletic Department Hall of Fame inductees have helped build the great athletic tradition that Clemson enjoys today. It will continue to enhance the program tomorrow.

This year's inductees include three former Tiger football players, a former Tiger basketball star, perhaps Clemson's most decorated track All-American in history and an 18-time All-America swimmer. Their plaques will be mounted proudly with the other members of the Clemson University Hall of Fame in the Frank Johnstone Jervy Athletic Center. With today's inductees, the hall now boasts of 127 former Clemson athletes and administrators.

Ralph Jenkins played football between 1943-46. He was just the fourth All-American in Clemson history, earning third-team AP All-America honors in 1945, his junior year. He was also a first-team choice by the International News Service that year.

Jenkins was named All-Southern in 1944 and 1945, but he played just four games as a senior in 1946 due to an injury. Upon the completion of his senior season, he played in the 1946 Blue-Gray Game Classic in Montgomery, AL, one of the first Tigers in history to be named to a postseason all-star game. He was Clemson's starting center for the 1943-44-45 seasons and had 27 starts in his career. In 1946 he was a 14th round pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers and played with Pittsburgh during the 1947 season.

A name synonymous with Clemson University in all levels is Phil Prince. Prince played football at Clemson in 1944-48. Most recently, he served as President of Clemson University in the 1994-95 academic year.

On the gridiron he is most remembered for a blocked punt against South Carolina in 1948. The Tigers scored a touchdown on that play and it provided the winning points in Clemson's 13-7 win at South Carolina. It was a most important victory in Clemson's undefeated 1948 season, Clemson's first undefeated team in 48 years. Prince was a starting tackle and a co-captain on that team that concluded the season with a Gator Bowl and Southern Conference Championship. He also started as a first-year freshman in 1944 and as a junior in 1947.

While Prince's athletic abilities warrant his inclusion in the Hall of Fame, he has had noteworthy accomplishments off the field. In addition to his year as President of Clemson, he was a member of the Alumni National Council and a member of the Board of Trustees.

Prince was the recipient of the Alumni Association's Distinguished Service Award and the first President's Award, which recognizes outstanding service to the university. In 1989, he was presented the school's highest award, the Clemson Medallion.

Larry Nance was a Clemson basketball star between 1977-81. He helped put Clemson on the basketball map by leading the Tigers to the NCAA Tournament's Final Eight in 1980, the only time Clemson has advanced to the regional finals of the NCAA Tournament. That same year, he was named to the All-West Regional Team, the only Tiger so honored for his performance in an NCAA Tournament.

Nance is currently sixth in Clemson history in rebounding and is in the top 10 in field goal percentage and scoring. He was named honorable mention All-American in the 1980-81 season and was a second-team All-ACC selection that same season. Nance was one of Clemson's most popular players because of his unique ability to dunk the basketball, which he did a record 55 times in 1980-81.

After being a first-round selection by the Phoenix Suns in 1981, Nance had a stellar NBA career. He was a three-time NBA all-star (1985-89-93) in his 13-year NBA career. Twice he was named to the NBA's All-Defensive team and he was rated the top power forward in the NBA heading into the 1992-93 season. He is the NBA's career leader in blocked shots by a forward and also won the first NBA Slam Dunk contest in 1984. Last year

Hans Koeleman

Jim Stuckey

his jersey was retired by the Cleveland Cavaliers.

Jim Stuckey was a defensive line standout for the Tigers in 1976-79. He was one of the Tigers who helped Clemson turn the corner in 1977 when it won eight games and made its first bowl appearance in 18 years. Clemson went to Bowl games in each of Stuckey's last three years.

In 1979, he was one of the most honored linemen in the nation. He was a First-Team All-American, by the Associated Press, United Press International, Football Writers and The Sporting News. He was also a 1978 and 1979 first-team Atlantic Coast Conference selection. In 1979, he was the Atlanta Touchdown Club, Southeast Lineman-of-the-Year. He was also awarded the Order of the Palmetto by Governor Richard C. Riley, the highest award given to a citizen of South Carolina.

At Clemson, he is the all-time career leader in tackles by a lineman, (314), which is the sixth best total overall. Stuckey also started more games than any defensive lineman in Clemson history (40 games) and tied for the most quarterback sacks in school's history in a single season, 10. The former tackle was a first-round Draft Pick of the San Francisco 49ers in 1980. He won Super Bowl Championship with the 49ers in 1982 and 1984.

This has been a big year for Stuckey in terms of honors. Last summer he was inducted into the state of South Carolina Hall of Fame.

Hans Koeleman was a Clemson Track Star in 1980-83. He was a three-time All-American during his track career and a three-time cross country All-American. He remains the only Clemson track athlete in history to earn All-America honors in cross country, indoor and outdoor track in the same academic year. Only former Clemson Sprinter James Trapp won more All-America certificates than Koeleman.

In cross Country, Koeleman won the NCAA District III event three times, 1980, 1982, 1983 and was a three-time ACC cross country individual champion, 1980, 1982, 1983, the only Tiger to win that event three times.

In track, he was an outdoor All-American in the 3000 meter steeplechase in 1981, and was an indoor track All-American in 1980, 1981. At the NCAA Indoor Championships, he finished fourth in the mile run in 1980, and finished fourth in the two-mile run in 1981. He finished sixth in the outdoor steeplechase that year. During his track career, he was a six-time ACC Champion. He was also named the ACC Meet Most Valuable Performer in 1982 and 1983.

Pam Hayden was one of the best Clemson women's swimmers of all-time. Hayden performed for the Lady Tigers between 1984-88. During her career, she was an 18-event All-American. She was also a 10-event ACC Champion during her days at Tigertown. To this day she still holds the Clemson record in the 100 meter and 200 meter butterfly events.

Hayden was a two-time ACC

Ralph Jenkins

Swimmer of the Year selection and she won the Frank Howard Award in the Spring of 1988, just the second female in history to win that award. During her career at Clemson, the Tiger women's swimming program reached new heights as the Lady Tigers were ranked in the top 20 each season, including a number-five finish in 1988.

She qualified for the Olympic Trials in three events in 1988, then won a Gold Medal at the World University Games in 1990. While working on her master's degree, she served as an assistant coach between 1990-93 at her alma mater.

Why some teams have a stronger bench than others.

The McFadden Building

McFadden Building

The Clemson Athletic Department continued its commitment to provide its student-athletes with the best facilities when it recently completed the Banks McFadden Building at the Jervey Athletic Center. The dedication of this 20,000-square-foot facility last April was the cornerstone of the Jervey Athletic Center renovation project that will be completed in 1996. It is designed to give all Clemson gridgers the most modern and comfortable facilities in the nation.

The McFadden Building houses all the coaching offices and meeting rooms for Clemson's football team. The facility has meeting rooms for all nine position areas, so players are no longer forced to view film and discuss key strategy in a coach's cramped office. Each meeting room is equipped with "state of the art" video equipment.

There is also an auditorium that will hold as many as 180 people and is used for team meetings and press conferences. Additionally, there are private rooms for interviews with the media, a lounge, and even a pro scout facility that allows NFL representatives to view film of current Tigers in air-conditioned comfort.

The facility will also house a trophy and memorabilia area at its entrance. Much of the area will be devoted to Banks McFadden, the former Clemson All-American and coach who perhaps had as much an impact on Clemson athletic history as anyone.

The construction of the McFadden building is one of the final stages of the overall renovation of the Jervey Athletic Center. Last summer the Tiger football team came back to a new and expanded locker room with fresh paint, new carpeting, new lockers and more space. The training room was also expanded and a player lounge area, complete with video games and televisions, was constructed. By next year the weight room below the Jervey Athletic Center will be increased in size to an incredible 14,000 square feet from its already impressive 11,000 square feet.

"The completion of the McFadden building gives us outstanding facilities in every area," said Head Coach Tommy West. "We now have a stadium that is second to none as far as its appearance, tradition and ability to accommodate large crowds in a pleasant and unique setting. We have a new, modern and spacious locker room, team area and training facilities. And, the meeting and office areas are comfortable places to learn and work."

What we mean by putting South Carolina first.

We founded Carolina First because, well, because we felt we had to. • South Carolina's community banks were being bought up and run to serve absentee owners. • Being South Carolinians, we didn't care to do without a strong bank dedicated to our state's well-being. Being bankers, we created this bank. • If we understand South Carolina's needs, it's because they're the needs of our own friends and neighbors. We invest in South Carolina businesses because it's good business for all concerned. After all, when our home communities grow and prosper, we grow and prosper. And because we treat our customers as the individuals they are, their good feelings spark our own. • We'd treat any customer from anywhere this way. But by design – and in conscious contrast to the multi-state megabanks – our customers are South Carolinians. So are we. Is it any wonder we put South Carolina first?

CAROLINA FIRST
The bank that puts South Carolina first.

ACC FOOTBALL

*The ACC has had five bowl teams in each of the past two seasons and at least four bowl teams six years in a row.

*The ACC was the only conference to have five teams ranked in both the final AP and USA Today polls in 1994.

*The league had five teams with eight or more wins. Six teams, including Clemson, were ranked in the top 25 of both polls at one time or another in 1994.

*Five ACC Players, including Clemson's Ed Glenn, were named first-team Academic All-American, while five players were named first-team All-American.

*The ACC is the only conference to have all of its members play in at least one bowl game over the last six years.

*Nine times in the last 15 years an ACC member school has won the CFA Academic Achievement Award.

*Over the last 14 years the ACC and the Big Eight have captured more college football national championships than any other conference. Clemson won the title in 1981, Georgia Tech in 1990 and Florida State in 1993.

*The nine ACC schools that will take to the field this fall have produced 304 first or second-team gridiron All-Americans and 47 first-team Academic All-Americans. ACC teams have had 1,280 players selected in the annual NFL draft, including 81 first-round selections.

*Clemson and Florida State are two of just six teams nationally who have won at least 75 percent of their games in seven of the last nine years. Clemson and Florida State are two of just four teams to win at least six bowl games since 1986.

*For the fourth consecutive year the ACC drew more than 2.2 million fans. Over 51 home dates, ACC schools attracted 2,262,017 fans. ACC teams played to 88 percent of their stadium capacities. Clemson ranked 13th in the nation in average attendance, its 13th straight year in the top 15 in the nation in attendance.

*If success in postseason play is a barometer of excellence, the ACC is among the best leagues in the nation. The nine ACC teams have a combined 73-62-5 record in bowl games over the years, a .540 winning percentage. That is second only to the Pac-10's .550 success rate. Three ACC teams are among the top eight in NCAA history in terms of bowl winning percentage.

Winningest Conferences, Bowl Games

League	Record	Pct
Pacific-10	80-65-6	.550
Atlantic Coast	73-62-5	.540
Big 10	73-71-3	.507

Southeastern	128-126-13	.503
Big Eight	62-64-1	.492
Western Athletic	34-36-3	.486
Big East	42-48-1	.467
Southwest	59-73-6	.449

Winningest Schools, Bowl Games (Min. 15 Games played)

Team	Record	Pct
Georgia Tech	17-8	.680
Florida State	15-7-2	.667
Notre Dame	13-7	.650
Southern Cal	24-13	.649
Penn State	19-10-2	.645
Oklahoma	20-11-1	.641
Arizona State	9-5-1	.633
Clemson	12-7	.632

*Four ACC teams are guaranteed appearing in postseason bowls this year. Five ACC teams received bowl bids in 1993 and 1994. The ACC Champion will be part of the Bowl Alliance, the #2 team will go to the Gator Bowl, the #3 team to the Peach Bowl and the #4 team to the Carquest Bowl.

*ACC Football teams made 26 appearances on National Television in 1994.

*The ACC won three national championships in 1994-95 and has now won 21 national championships in the last five years.

*Four schools ranked in the top 25 of the Sears Cup for all-around excellence in athletics.

*Eight ACC teams, including the Clemson baseball team, earned a number-one ranking during the course of the 1994-95 academic year.

*The ACC Academic Honor Roll record was broken for the ninth straight year as 1,171 student-athletes achieved at least a 3.0 for the year in the classroom.

Clemson and Florida State are two of the most successful teams in college football history in bowl games.

EMERGENCY SERVICES

The Clemson University Athletic Department provides the following for your safety and emergency medical needs:

1. Advanced cardiac life-support stations in four locations (North stands, upper North deck, South stands, Upper South deck). These units are staffed with skill-care nurses, physicians, cardiologists, internists, paramedics, and EMTs.
 2. Mobile units of EMTs and paramedics are strategically located throughout the entire stadium.
 3. Ambulances with life-support equipment are available in North stand and South stand areas and have prearranged routes for evacuation to local hospitals.
- Learn to recognize these personnel and facilities.

WHAT TO DO IF EMERGENCIES ARISE:

Please step back and give the organized EMS personnel room to work. Well-intentioned attempts to help by untrained persons interfere with the efficiency of the EMS system. If you have basic or advanced training in specific life-support methods, make your qualifications known and offer your help. Untrained personnel can frequently be more harmful than helpful.

Most emergencies occurring at the stadium result from pre-existing medical conditions. Bring your medical identification card or wear medical identification jewelry. Moderation is the key with dress, food, beverage intake, and physical exertion. The two most frequent medical problems at football games are allergic reactions to insect stings and heart attacks.

INSECT STINGS:

Common at outdoor events. Treat immediately with ice and seek medical advice. If allergic, carry a kit from your physician with you.

HOW TO RECOGNIZE A HEART ATTACK:

The symptoms of a heart attack vary, but the usual warning signs are:

1. Uncomfortable pressure, fullness, squeezing or pain in the center of your chest lasting for two minutes or more.
2. Pain spreading to the shoulders, neck, jaw, arms, or back.
3. Dizziness, fainting, sweating, nausea, and/or shortness of breath.

EXPECT A DENIAL

Frequently heart attack victims deny they are having a heart attack. The event is frightening or they don't want the embarrassment of a false alarm. Therefore, they delay getting help by ignoring their symptoms or rationalizing, "It's just indigestion."

Find out what's really wrong. Prompt response can dramatically increase chances of survival and recovery.

New therapies have been developed that can minimize heart damage and save lives if treatment begins within the first few hours of symptom onset. "Time is muscle." Get help or get to a hospital immediately.

Ralph Jenkins
Jenkins might have been Clemson's top line-man of the 1940s. The center was a second-team All-American in 1945 as a junior, then an injury allowed him to play in just four games in 1946. He was a starter in 1943-44-45 and was later a 14th round draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers. He will be inducted into the Clemson Hall of Fame this afternoon.

Senior Platoon

The senior platoon represented Clemson at many sporting events, more than just Tiger events. They performed in places like Yankee Stadium and Fenway Park. In 1942 the platoon disbanded because of World War II. The fast-stepping drill unit performed intricate maneuvers during its routine and always ended its show with the Queen Ann salute.

Carey Cox

Carey Cox must have been an outstanding leader of men. He is the only player in history to serve as captain of both the South Carolina and Clemson football teams over his career. In 1943 he was a captain at South Carolina. Then, after the war he transferred to Clemson and became captain in 1947.

touchdown run, the longest run from scrimmage by a Tiger in the decade of the 1940s. The Tigers had 11 rushing touchdowns in the game, still a Clemson record.

October 10, 1945—James Hough returned an interception 76 yards for a score in Clemson's 35-0 win over Virginia Tech at Death Valley. It was the longest interception return by a Tiger in the decade of the 1940s.

October 25, 1945—Clemson had eight turnovers against South Carolina, yet did not lose the game. The Tigers and Gamecocks played to a 0-0 tie.

October 24, 1946—The Clemson vs. South Carolina game was played under unusual circumstances. Counterfeit tickets had been printed and 10,000 more people than the capacity showed up for the game. Fans stormed the gates and stood on the sidelines, even on the field at the opposite end when the game action was taking place. Coach Howard recalls fans standing next to him on the sideline telling him what plays to run. South Carolina won on this bizarre day, 26-14.

September 20, 1947—Bobby Gage led Clemson to a 42-0 win over Presbyterian by gaining 232 yards all-purpose running, still the seventh highest total in Clemson history. He had 186 yards rushing in just six carries for the day, an incredible 30 yards a rush.

September 24, 1947—Clemson flew to Boston College on an Eastern Airline DC-4.

This marked the first time that a state football team had flown to a football game. The quicker traveling did not help, however as Boston College defeated the Tigers 32-22.

November 8, 1947—Clemson began a 15-game winning streak, the longest in school history, with a win over Furman, 35-7.

November 15, 1947—The Tigers defeated Duquesne by a 34-13 score, thanks for the most part to an 89-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Bobby Gage. It was the longest kickoff return by a Tiger in the decade of the 1940s.

November 22, 1947—Bobby Gage ran for 141 yards and passed for 233 as he led Clemson to a 34-18 win over Auburn. Gage threw four touchdown passes and had 374

Single Wing

The Tigers ran the single wing to perfection in 1948. The 11-0 record was helped by an offense that averaged 4.9 yards per rush and gained 223 yards per game. It contributed to an offense that averaged 25 points per game. Bobby Gage was the perfect architect of the attack with his ability to run, pass, punt, you name it he did it.

Frank Gillespie

Gillespie was an All-Southern lineman for the Tigers in 1948. He had earlier been named the Southern Conference Athlete of the Year for the 1947-48 academic year. He also starred on the Clemson baseball team and was a reliable guard on the Tiger basketball squad. He remains the only player in Clemson history to be named a conference Athlete of the Year.

Phil Prince

Few have served Clemson for a longer period of time, or more significantly than Phil Prince. A captain of the 1948 team, he provided perhaps the most famous blocked kick in Clemson history. His hustling play led to the winning touchdown in Clemson's 1948 win over South Carolina. Last year Prince served as Clemson University President. Need we say more about someone's contributions to Clemson "on and off the field."

yards total offense to his credit, both still Clemson records. Hank Walker was Gage's favorite receiver as he pulled in 10 passes for 148 yards. It is still the second most receptions in a single game in Clemson history and the yardage total is the sixth best. It was the first time in Clemson history and one of just five times overall that the Tigers had a 100-yard rusher, a 100-yard receiver and a 200-yard passer in the same game. The Clemson defense was also outstanding, holding Auburn to -9 yards rushing.

June 1, 1948—Frank Gillespie was named the Southern Conference athlete of the year. Gillespie played football, basketball and baseball during the academic year and is still the only Clemson athlete to be named a conference athlete of the year.

September 25, 1948—Clemson defeated Presbyterian 53-0 in the first night game at Clemson. Clemson also defeated N.C. State, 6-0, in a home night game the following week.

October 2, 1948—Gage continued his All-America triple threat season by returning a punt 90 yards for a touchdown in Clemson's 6-0 win over N.C. State at Death Valley. To this day it is still the longest punt return in the history of the stadium by a Clemson player. Gage had 101 yards in punt returns for the game, one of just five 100-yard punt return games in Clemson history.

October 9, 1948—Ray Mathews had just three catches, but he picked up 105 yards on those catches to lead Clemson to a 21-7 win at Mississippi State.

October 21, 1948—A 14th ranked Clemson team defeated South Carolina 13-7 in Columbia. Captain Phil Prince was the hero for the Tigers as he blocked a South Carolina punt with just 4:15 left in the contest. Oscar Thompson recovered it at the 11 and ran it in for a touchdown, giving Clemson the 13-7 lead.

November 6, 1948—Bobby Gage put on the greatest passing exhibition in Clemson history in a 41-0 win over Furman. He completed 9-11 passes for 245 yards and two touchdowns. His efficiency rating of 310.7 is still a Clemson record for a minimum of 10 attempts. He averaged an incredible 22 yards per attempt, a record by

Clemson 24, Missouri 23

Clemson's 1948 season is still a cornerstone of Tiger football history. A team laden with sophomores, ran off an 11-0 record, the only 11-0 team in college football that year. Fred Cone (at left) and Ray Mathews (at right) were two of the young players who provided a spark for a Clemson team that outscored the opposition 274-76. Both were mainstays of the 1950 Clemson team that was also undefeated, but more on that in our scrapbook on the 1950s.

The 1948 season culminated in an exciting victory over Missouri in the Gator Bowl. A record crowd watched Jack Miller (with Jim Miller holding) boot a fourth-quarter 32-yard field goal that proved to be the winning points.

far in Clemson history. The defense was just as effective, holding the Paladins to -12 yards in total offense, still the best total defense effort in Clemson history for a single game.

November 13, 1948—The Tigers gained a big win over Wake Forest at Winston-Salem, 21-6. The Demon Deacons were ranked 19th in the nation coming into the game and it would be the first top 20 victory of Frank Howard's career.

November 20, 1948—Clemson defeated Duquesne 42-0 thanks to outstanding special teams. The Tigers had four punt returns for 140 yards in the contest as the ninth ranked Tigers moved to 8-0 for the season.

November 22, 1948—The Tigers were ranked number-nine in the AP poll, their highest ranking in history. Eight voters ranked Clemson number-one in the nation.

November 27, 1948—Clemson accepted a bid to play in the Gator Bowl after it beat Auburn 7-6 in a hard fought game played in Mobile, AL. It was Clemson's first bowl bid since the 1939 season. Ray Mathews scored on a one-yard run with just 6:35 left to give Clemson its only lead of the game.

November 29, 1948—Clemson ranked 11th in the final AP poll. Again Clemson suffered from not having a poll after the bowl games. Clemson won another regular season game, then defeated Missouri in the Gator Bowl to close a perfect season. But, these wins were not reflected in the final ranking.

The AP did not have a post-bowl poll until 1968.

December 4, 1948—Clemson closed out its perfect regular season with a 20-0 win over The Citadel in a game played in Charleston. The December 4 date is the second latest regular season game in Clemson history. The 10th ranked Tigers did not allow The Citadel to make a first down in the game, the only recorded time in Clemson history that the Tigers did not allow a first down. The Bulldogs also failed to complete a pass in the contest.

The victory was Clemson's sixth road win of the year, a record that still stands for road wins in a season. Only one Clemson team has had a perfect road record since 1948 and that was the 1981 National Championship team. Of course, the 1995

Bobby Gage

After reading our account of the 1930s you might think Banks McFadden was the greatest all-around football player Clemson has ever seen. That is probably true, but a look to the stats tells us Bobby Gage is on his tail.

Gage did everything, his stats in the Clemson press guide take up over an inch of copy. He passed for 2448 yards, rushed for 1309, had 10 interceptions, averaged 23 yards a kickoff return, 11 yards a punt return, 24 touchdown passes and he even punted 126 times. He still holds many Clemson records, including the single game total offense mark (374 vs. Auburn in 1947).

Tiger Timeline

Tigers can join them with a win at South Carolina on November 18.

December 6, 1948—Frank Howard was named Southern Conference Coach of the Year, his first of three Coach of the Year selections in his career.

December 21, 1948—Just 10 days prior to his last game as a Clemson Tiger, Bobby Gage was taken in the first round of the NFL draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers, just the second first-round draft choice in Clemson history. Banks McFadden was the other. Teammate Frank Gillespie was drafted in the seventh round by the Philadelphia Eagles.

January 1, 1949—The Tigers won the Gator Bowl by a 24-23 score over Missouri. Fred Cone scored two first-quarter touchdowns for the Tigers as Clemson raced to a 14-0 lead. After Missouri tied the game, Gage threw a nine-yard scoring pass to John Poulos, a play that completed an 80-yard drive. Jack Miller's 32-yard field goal in the fourth quarter proved to be the winning margin. Missouri would score a late touchdown to come within 24-23. But that was the final score. You could not go for two points in those days, so Missouri did not have the opportunity to tie the score after their touchdown that took place with less than five minutes left. Both teams had exactly 298 yards of total offense in the game.

Clemson closed the season with a perfect 11-0 record, the only team in college football with 11 wins that year and one of just three with a perfect record. Notre Dame and Michigan were both 9-0-0 that season, but did not play in a bowl game.

November 19, 1949—Glenn Smith caught four passes for 115 yards in a 28-21 victory over Furman.

November 26, 1949—Clemson closed out the decade of the 1940s with a 20-20 tie against Auburn in Mobile, AL. Clemson was just 4-4-2 in 1949 but closed 2-0-1 over the last three games, giving the program momentum heading into the 1950 season.

We will pick up the history of Clemson football in the 1950s when we return with the Furman program on Sept. 7, 1996.

1995 CLEMSON FOOTBALL

SPEEDY WATSON

By Jamie Hill

Who's next? How are you doing today? Well, what's your pleasure, a little off the top or keep the sideburns a little longer?

At this point, you must be thinking the printer has made a mistake and layed in an article about a Barber Shop Quartet instead of a piece about a Clemson cornerback. Wrong.

Of all the hobbies that would typify the current football player, cutting hair wouldn't make my top 25 list, or top 100 for that matter. For Speedy Watson, cutting hair is an avenue to move away from football and relax.

"I've cut everyone's hair on the team at one point in time during the season," said Watson, a fifth-year senior who has seen significant playing time as a second-team cornerback this year. "Even the freshmen have to go through a bald-headed stage during their rookie season." Now that the regular season is winding down, Watson seems to cut hair more frequently, to ease the pressure of a demanding academic and football schedule. "I started cutting hair for guys on the team, mainly to save money, because haircuts are getting expensive. Now I enjoy doing it. I have a group of guys that I cut all the time." The list includes starters, Andy McCrorey, Warren Forney, Dexter McCleon and Brian Dawkins.

For Watson, football has always been a part of his life, from playing ball as a kid to playing at Hamilton High School in Memphis, TN. In high school, Watson was rated as the nation's 36th-best cornerback according to some services. During his senior year, he picked off eight passes, running two of those picks back for touchdowns. He led Hamilton to an 8-3 record in his senior season primarily with his defensive abilities and in returns. Watson led the team in returns with a 30.8 average, which is a major reason the coaches at Clemson were so impressed with him.

Before entering high school, his junior high coach noticed that this 5-7, 155 pound football player had a knack for blowing by everybody. No one could catch him at running back, so the coach crowned him with the nickname "Speedy".

"Coach Bartow came to see me run in a junior high track meet before I decided which high school I would go to. When I finally decided to go to Hamilton High School, I saw him before the season started and he said, 'There he is, Jesse Owens. We are going to call him Speedy. The name has stuck with me since the end of my ninth-grade year."

The nickname actually fits him like a perfectly laced shoe. Two years ago, Speedy posted the fastest 40-yard dash time on the Clemson team with a 4.31 seconds. In fact it was the fastest since 1985, and is only .04 seconds off the Clemson record set by Jerry Butler during the 1978 preseason.

The only time you'll hear Speedy's given name, Marlon, is when he is in a little bit of trouble with his mother. "My mom likes the nickname, but she'll put me in my place and call me Marlon when she gets mad at me."

Nicknames aside, Speedy has a focus for his senior season. "As with every game this season, we are going into every contest and trying to play to our best potential. I see this team going to a bowl game, and I expect us to be their. I really don't care which bowl it is, as long as we're going to the post season."

During his career, Speedy has been used as a reserve cornerback, seeing action in just nine games prior to this season. He had an interception against Wake Forest in 1994 that was certainly a highlight. "It was basically a coverage call, and I read the quarterback. The coaches made a perfect call and I just stepped in front of the receiver and picked off the ball."

But, this season, Watson has been a significant contributor in nearly every game. He played 17 snaps against N.C. State when the Tigers had injury problems and six defensive backs were needed on many plays when the Pack was putting up over 50 passes. He has continued to see significant playing time with the game on the line against Georgia, Maryland and Georgia Tech.

Training with the track team during the winters has improved Speedy's agility and endurance, and has helped him move up the depth chart in his fifth and final season at Clemson. After casting aside the fears of weightlifting when training, Speedy has steadily gained strength and confidence, which carries over onto the field.

"Running with the track team has helped my explosiveness on the field and I think every skill position on the field should train with the track team, because it helps to build up your reaction time and teaches you how to run. You can be fast and not know how to run, which defeats the purpose. Knowing how to run helps you in a game where every little advantage can be the difference between breaking a tackle for a long gain or being thrown on your butt for loss."

Weight lifting, as we all know, is a major part of an athletes training regimen, but for Speedy, it wasn't a major part of his regimen in preparing for college football. "If I could have changed anything about myself coming out of high school, I would have lifted weights more. I figured I didn't have to lift weights because I was so fast. If I got on the outside, I could blow by everybody. I also had the feeling that if I lifted and gained a lot of muscle, then I would lose speed and horizontal agility."

Watson's hard work on the field and in the classroom has paid off, giving him some options when his days at Clemson are over. "I'm going to finish up my degree in industrial education in May and continue to workout, with the hopes of getting a shot at pro football. If not, it won't be the end of the world. I came to Clemson with the sole intentions of getting an education, and I believe that I have worked hard to achieve that. But, I do know that when I walk across that stage and leave the building, I'm going on vacation somewhere for a short time."

Speedy Watson understands the importance of academics and football, and with that he has learned to balance the two. Keeping everything in perspective and knowing how to escape the demands of football have kept Speedy Watson one cut above the rest.

Watson hasn't taken any shortcuts to his second-team cornerback position in 1995.

TODAY'S BAND PROGRAM

By Brenda Rabon

A final chapter closes in the lives of many this weekend as some experience their last Tiger football game as a Clemson student. For these seniors, the past few years have passed in the blink of an eye and college days are slowly coming to a close. It only seems like yesterday to these students that they were left in the unfamiliar world of college life as freshmen.

Today's performance will be a special one for the Tiger Band graduating seniors as they perform "Tiger Rag" for the last time in Death Valley as a member of "The Band that Shakes the Southland." The Clemson Athletic Department would like to extend heartfelt thanks to the graduating seniors of Tiger Band for the time they have spent practicing and also performing at numerous athletic events over the years.

The Clemson University Bands are open to every student who has had previous instrumental experience. Students from all five colleges in the University, representing 46 different academic areas of study, participate in the various instrumental ensembles offered by the Department of Performing Arts. Band members find that being involved in the Clemson Band Program enriches their extracurricular horizons without taking away from their academic progress.

This will always be a special day in the memories of the seniors as they participate in their last performance at a Clemson Tiger football game. The graduating seniors of Tiger Band are Lance Evans, Cherie Sheffer, Laura Tesi, Carrie-Ann Dunn, Kim Driggers, Kelly Loving, Paul Streater, Russ Hardee, Stuart Hayes, Kathryn Brucker, Kim Tolsma, Lee Welsh, Kris Kay, Matt Greer, Bryant Evans, Michael Boone, Brian Polen, Johnnie Waller, and Dee Jones.

Dr. Mark Hosler, Tiger Band Director, wishes to thank this group of seniors. "The years of dedication and effort by these Clemson students has been appreciated by all of the members and staff of Tiger Band, and by Clemson football fans as well. Best wishes in the future, and thank you graduating seniors for a job well done!"

Pregame festivities begin with one of John Phillip Sousa's most renowned marches, "Washington Post." The Clemson University Pershing Rifles Company C4 presents the colors on the field. Everyone then stands and joins Tiger Band to honor America in singing "God Bless America."

After the invocation, the crowd remains standing for the Pledge of Allegiance and the singing of the National Anthem conducted by Clemson University Director of Bands, Dr. Richard Goodstein. Tiger Band then invites all to sing the Clemson University Alma Mater.

Tiger Band marches to form the traditional script "Tigers" across Frank Howard Field. Everyone directs attention to the 25-yard line where Clemson's own Duane Ross, the 1995 NCAA Outdoor 110 Meter Hurdle National Champion, will have the honor of dotting the "i."

Ross, a native of Charlotte, NC, expects to graduate with a degree in Finance in May 1996. The seven time All-American set a

Where the Tigers play

Clemson record at the NCAA Outdoor Championships with his time of 13.32. In 1993 and 1995, Ross was the ACC Indoor Champion of the 55 meter high hurdles which ranks him sixth all-time in Clemson history for ACC individual titles. This past summer Ross competed at the 1995 World University Games in Kobe, Japan.

Tiger Band then strikes up "Sock It To 'Em/Tiger Rag" while marching to the east end of Memorial Stadium to form the tunnel for the Tigers to run through. Fans are moments from witnessing what has been described as "the most exciting 25 seconds in college football from a color and pageantry standpoint."

At the appointed time, the cannon fires and the Tigers invade Death Valley to face the Duke Blue Devils. This will be a special moment for the seniors of the Tiger team as they run down the legendary hill for the last time. This surely will be a moment they will never forget.

During halftime, Tiger Band presents a show entitled "Salute to the American Veteran" as the United States celebrates Veteran's Day. Music selections include "The Marines' Hymn," "The Caisson Song," "Anchors Aweigh," "Semper Paratus," "The U.S. Air Force March," and "Stars and Stripes Forever."

Tiger Band staff includes Dr. Mark Hosler, Tiger Band Director, Dr. Rick Goodstein, Director of Bands, Cheryl Hosler, Flag Line Instructor, and Hazel Cartee, Twirler Instructor.

Tiger Band wishes to extend an invitation to everyone to their annual "Pass-in-Review" concert on Friday, November 17, at 8:00 PM in the Brooks Center.

As the sun sets on another football season in Death Valley, we salute Tiger Band for keeping that Tiger spirit alive. At the conclusion of today's game between the Tigers and the Blue Devils, Tiger Band upholds another Clemson tradition as they play the Clemson University Alma Mater for a final time, but the love of Clemson will continue to grow in the hearts of these students for years to come.

TIGER BASEBALL

By Brett Sowell

Coach Jack Leggett's third year at the helm of the Clemson Baseball team may be his most challenging. A lot has happened since the Tigers finished the 1995 season as East Regional Champions and a trip to the College World Series. One major occurrence was the 1995 Major League Baseball Amateur draft.

Seven Clemson players, including six underclassmen, were drafted. For the first time since 1987 Clemson had a first-round selection in David Miller. The .380 hitter was one of the major reasons Clemson ranked second in the nation in wins with 54. Also drafted was junior Shane Monahan, like Miller an All-American. Leggett had a stellar recruiting class coming in, but it was also plucked of nine talented Tiger newcomers by the draft, the most ever from a Clemson recruiting class.

"I am very positive about the upcoming year, but to lose nine kids to the draft that we expected to come in and help, sent us into a tailspin at the end of the summer. We tried to scramble and do the best we could," Leggett said. "We had the future of the next three years well in hand, it just didn't work out that way, but we are not going to make any excuses."

The Tigers will have to use a different style of baseball compared to last season. Clemson relied more on power in 1995, but this year Leggett will not have that luxury. "We need to role play on offense and be able to hit-and-run. We need to be able to bunt. We need to be tougher with two strikes and strikeout less. We also need to be a team that doesn't hit the ball up in the air. There are two or three guys on our team who have some power potential, but other than that we really have to know how to play offense and run the bases."

Clemson's position with the most depth is at catcher. Matt LeCroy and Will Duffie, a senior, are both solid performers at the plate. LeCroy spent the summer on the USA Baseball Team, and he led the team in home runs. Duffie was instrumental in Clemson's success in last season's NCAA East Regional. He was the runnerup as the tournament MVP, thanks in part to a clutch 4-4 game in the championship victory over Alabama.

"Right now we have two kids with some good experience," said Leggett. "Will Duffie alternated a lot last season with LeCroy. Duffie has a lot of experience as a catcher and a DH for us. He did a great job coming down the stretch. We have to be a little bit more consistent with our defense behind the plate. Hitting wise, Duffie has been a real consistent player for us and Matt is capable of being a good power hitter and RBI man."

The pitching staff is blessed with experience from a starter standpoint. "On the pitching side of things I think our top three guys are as strong as anyone. We've got Kris Benson (8-3) who has just come back from the USA Trials, and he has made himself a much stronger athlete. Billy Koch (7-2, 111 strikeouts) can be dominating when he is on and can throw the ball around 90 mph. He has good breaking pitches and he can change speeds well. I think Ken Vining (4-0, 78 strikeouts) is one of the best left handers in the conference. If he can get consistent and stay healthy I think he has a chance of becoming one of the top pitchers in the conference as well. "

The fourth starter and a closer are questionmarks on this team. Leggett already has two players in mind to fill those roles with returnee Brian Matz as the fourth starter, and Scott Hauser as the closer. "Matz is capable of becoming a good pitcher for us. After that we have some questionmarks. We are hoping that Hauser can be in a closing type role for us. We've enjoyed having great relief pitching for the last several years with Scott Winchester and Jamie Eggleston. "

At first base Tiger fans will see the return of junior Jason Embley. "We went full cycle back to Jason Embley again, he started as a red-shirt freshman for us the year we went 57-18. David Miller moved to first base last year, and Jason has been patient waiting for his turn. He does a great job defensively, he is big and tall and very aggressive."

Second base is one of the positions Leggett has a lot of faith in. "We feel like we've got the best defensive second baseman in the ACC in senior Doug Livingston. He had a great year last year for us especially defensively. He went up to the Cape Cod League and played well up there and came back with a lot of confidence." Livingston hit .262 last year and fielded at a .960 rate.

Livingston's double play partner of 1995, Seth Brizek, has moved on to the pro ranks as a pitcher. The shortstop position likely will be filled by a freshman in 1996. "We have a couple of kids who are fighting for that position. One is Kurt Bultman, who may be one of the hardest working and aggressive freshmen we have had in a while. He is going to see a lot of action for us as a freshman. "Another player is Doug Roper. He is probably a little smoother, he has good technique, and a good strong arm. He has versatility, because he can play short, second and pitch. If he gets his hitting going he will be able to help us down the road."

At third, Paul Galloway, has been a consistent performer on the field and in the class room. He has a career average of .306 and a GPR of 4.0, good enough to earn him GTE Academic All-American recognition. "Galloway is solid as a rock. He is especially solid in terms of his academics and the things he does on and off the field. He was outstanding last year, especially in the regional."

In the outfield Clemson will look to junior Gary Burnham to lead the charge. Burnham will take the duties in left. He hit eight homers and nearly a record 27 doubles in his 66 games as a starter. "We feel very strong about what Burnham can do hitting third in the order. He will be a strong RBI man for us. He is good against left and right handed pitching."

Senior Rusty Rhodes will roam center field for the Tigers. He had a .390 average in 59 plate appearances last season. "He is a guy who is going to be a contributor. He is capable of being a good offensive player for us, he can bunt the ball around. If he can get a better concept on how to run the defense out in the outfield for us he will have a good year, I think he is a hard worker."

Jerome Robinson, a senior, will return to right field. Robinson batted a solid .294 in the East Regional. "Robinson is on the verge of having an outstanding year from both sides of the plate. Defensively he is our best technical outfielder."

Clemson's 38-game home schedule gets underway on February 16 when South Florida comes to Tiger Field. Among the opponents coming to Clemson will be Maine, Virginia Tech, South Carolina, Florida State and N.C. State.

Galloway was a first-team Academic All-American.

CLEMSON POTPOURRI

by Tim Bourret

Greene Makes Reader's Digest

Clemson quarterback Nealon Greene recently was featured in a short vignette and photo in Reader's Digest, the largest circulation magazine in the world. The excerpt was taken from a story on Greene in College Sports Magazine by Jim Henry of the Tampa Tribune.

"Clemson quarterback Nealon Greene doesn't get rattled easily—certainly not by something like an oncoming defense. Greene is one of six quarterbacks in Clemson history to throw a touchdown pass in his first game, and he even enjoys playing in front of 80,000 opposing fans, which he did in his first college game at the University of Georgia in 1994.

"The reason he is so composed? Greene grew up in a tough section of Yonkers, NY, that was filled with crime, drugs and broken dreams. Despite the demons, though, Greene was not tempted. 'I was one of those kids who knew what they had to do. I didn't get in trouble. My mother always knew where I was.'"

Balanced Attack

Clemson has shown a balanced attack this year relative of previous successful seasons in Clemson football history. The Tigers average over 150 yards a game passing, something only six Clemson teams in history have done over the course of a season. Only two teams in Clemson history have averaged over 150 yards a game in the air and over 200 on the ground, the 1984 Tigers quarterbacked by Mike Eppley and the 1991 ACC title team.

Balanced attacks can be shown in games in which the Tigers have a 100-yard rusher and a 100-yard receiver. That happened two weeks ago when Emory Smith rushed for 100 yards and Antwan Wyatt caught passes for 123 yards. It was just the 18th time in Clemson history that had taken place. The Tigers are 14-3-1 in those games.

Clemson Kicking Tradition

Clemson is known for its linebackers, but the Tigers are not far behind in terms of producing placekickers. Every Clemson kicker since 1978 has made an All-ACC team at least one year in their career. Five of the last six Tiger placekickers have been named an All-American at one time or another. We aren't sure if Jeff Sauve will join that elite group, but he has certainly done well, especially lately. Sauve has made 7 of his last 8 field goals and has been the ACC Special Teams Player of the Week twice this year.

THE LAST WORD

by Bob Bradley

The Atlantic Coast Conference was formed in May of 1953 when seven teams pulled out of the Southern Conference after Clemson and Maryland were put on one year's probation by the presidents of the league for accepting a bowl bid the year before.

Duke was one of those seven schools, that in addition to the Tigers and Terps, included South Carolina, Wake Forest, North Carolina and North Carolina State. There was an understanding that Virginia would join the new alignment in December of '53, which it did.

Clemson and the Cavaliers had never met in football prior to the formation of the ACC and there had been a three-game set with the Blue Devils (1934-35-36), although Duke and the Tigers had scrimmaged each other during spring practice several times. Of the seven charter members of the ACC, Clemson has played Duke fewer times (39) in football than any of the other originals.

Clemson, by virtue of winning 12 of the last 14 games between the two, now leads the series 24-14, with one tie. The Tigers' took a 12-11-1 lead after the 1979 win in Durham, but a brash, young freshman named Ben Bennett came into 'Death Valley' a year later and passed the Blue Devils to 34-17 win to even the series again. He brought Duke back from a 17-10 halftime deficit.

The Tigers and Blue Devils have probably had more "blue collar games" than any two teams in the league because both of them believe in dog-eat-dog, root-hog-or-die line play. And the members who make up the respective lines are big enough where there's no chance of either school getting a letter from the humane society.

One of the best Clemson-Duke battles was not seen by all that many fans of either school because it was in Tokyo in 1991. The Tigers had to score 26 points in the final period to come out a 33-21 winner. Dave Brown, a La New York Giants, who holds the Duke single game passing record with 479 yards, connected on 23 of 48 in the Tokyo Dome for 385 yards and three scores. But the Tigers gained 355 yards on the ground for three TDs and relied on their passing in crucial times. Terry Smith caught two of the seven Clemson completions for scores. No Tiger did it again until Tony Horne had two receiving scores at N.C. State this year.

Richard Moncrief, taking over for an injured DeChane Cameron, ran a dazzling 34-yard run for a score to break a 14-all tie some three minutes after Rudy Harris had brought the Tigers even. Two minutes later Moncrief and Smith connected on a 34-yard pass following a Blue Devil fumble. However, QB Brown passed to FB Chris Brown for a 12-yard score and Duke trailed by six, 27-21, and there was still 4:39 remaining to play.

David Waffle recovered a Clemson fumble at the Tiger 35 four plays after the kickoff, but one running play and three incomplete passes netted just two yards giving Clemson the ball again. Harris took three straight handoffs, the last time he rambled 59 yards on a bunched-up line and Clemson had some breathing room with 1:24 remaining.

But Mr. Brown, was not ready to concede. With a third-and-12 at the Clemson 26, how's this for a game-ending play? Brown's pass is intercepted by Kenzil Jackson, who pitches to Tony Mauney, who pitches to team captain Robert O'Neal, who is tackled and despite all of that ball handling, there was no return yardage on the interception.

That was a great spectator game. The Tigers had already won the ACC title and were on their way to play California in the Citrus Bowl via Tokyo.

As exciting as this game was, I believe I enjoyed one in Durham in 1983 even more. Ben Bennett was now a senior. After his sensational game against Clemson as a freshman, the Tigers downed the Iron Dukes 38-10 in Durham in the 1981 national championship year while holding a No. 6 ranking; and the following year in Death Valley, the 20th-ranked Tigers came up with a 49-14 win as the Blue Devils went through back-to-back 6 and 5 seasons.

Clemson had taken a 24-3 lead as Kevin Mack, Mike Eppley and Stacey Driver had scored six points each and Bob Paulling had chipped in six also, on three PATs and a 35-yard field goal, this coming with 1:54 left in the half. But in 91 ticks, Bennett had the Blue Devils in the end zone.

Two completions to Greg Flanagan got into Clemson territory. Three passes to Mark Militello netted 18, 15 and 16 yards, the last from Bennett good for a touchdown and the Blue Devils had regained the "Big Mo" headed for the halftime breather.

Clemson got the second half kickoff and took some of the starch out of the Duke sails as Eppley drove the Tigers 72 yards for a score. A pass to K. D. Dunn gained 20, Kenny Flowers took a stroll of 12 on the option and Ray Williams got 21 on another pass before Flowers scored from the one.

But back came Bennett.

All of a sudden he and Chuck Herring became bosom buddies. Bennett found his wide receiver over the middle and completed a pass covering 56 yards and a TD. On the first play after a Tim Childers interception of a Bennett pass, Eppley and Williams connected for 29 yards, but Williams fumbled and Darryl Brunson recovered for Duke. Bennett again found Herring for a score, this one for nine yards and the Dukes closed to within seven, 31-24.

Clemson regained possession with 32 seconds left in the third period and on the first play of the final chapter, Flowers, on the draw, broke several tackles and went in from 35 yards for his second score of the day to put the Tigers back up by 14, 38-24.

After a 'three and out' by both teams, Bennett began his wizardry again. He drove his team 87 yards in just over three minutes for the tally. This time Mike Grayson took the pass covering 14 yards, and again, the margin narrowed to seven.

Clemson had to punt after three downs and Bennett's last stand was about to take place; from the Duke 37 to the Clemson nine in 2:20 and a fourth-and-five. James Robinson knocked down Bennett's 53rd pass and Eppley took the knee three times in the final 61 seconds happy that Bennett did not have one more first and 10. This meant a 38-31 Clemson victory.

But what a wringer! Each team had over 500 yards of total offense, which included 383 rushing by the Tigers and 367 passing by Duke. Bennett's 53 passes is still seventh in Duke history, his 34 completions are second highest, Militello had 13 of his season high 63 receptions, which is still third highest in a game by a Duke player and most ever against the Tigers.

Mack led the Tigers in rushing with 150 yards, including a 53-yard dash; Flowers added 112 on the ground and Driver contributed 83.

This up-and-down-the-field stuff certainly was exciting. There hasn't been an offensive show by both teams in a Clemson football game since.

This is the dealership that Yeargin built that sells the cars that BMW builds.

If this building looks impressive, that's because it is. By design. Through the teamwork of Century BMW and Yeargin Enterprises, this state-of-the-art facility reflects the pride and craftsmanship they both work so hard to achieve. (It was nice when our new neighbors, BMW North America, said they liked it too.) So if you appreciate quality, come check out the showroom. And maybe a car or two.
